in v.5 we see something that must either be literal or spiritual. The scriptures around that verse make it a literal blood moon. v.6 shows stars falling. It is interesting to see that this is a prophetic verse in v.6. That is a future event. The stars are here telling the future. it is a passage that must be discerned as stars telling of the future but not astrology. The figs are a picture to describe for this is not figs falling. May the Holy Spirit show the truth here.
