Here is the site for Brother Ken Neilson.

I posted this again so it would be easier to find for some people.

Dear Family and Friends of Ken Neilson:

What a journey this has been. I am overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and faith that I have witnessed and experienced in these past mere 12 days. My brother has died too young, and I am sure that the hearts of Melanee and their eight beautiful children are ripped in two, even as they praise their father in heaven for giving them the man, Ken, as father and husband. I am sadened, but blessed to be sister to Ken and privileged beyond measure to know and love his wife and children. God is God, so far beyond our understanding. He giveth...and he taketh away.... Blessed be the name of the Lord!

Dear Family & Friends of Ken Neilson,

The celebration of Ken's life will take place on Friday, April 29th at 11am at Voice Ministries in Elkhart. Lunch will be provided following the service. As we celebrate, the family asks that you wear brightly-colored clothes in honor of Ken's joy in the Lord. We invite everyone to join the Neilson family for this celebration.
