Though they are not the same, but are companions, they are called thanks and praise. Eph. 6,12,14 we are called to the praise of his glory.

2Cor. 4:15 notice here that part b. abundant grace through the thanksgiving of many redound to (the glory of God.)

in 1Tim. 4:4 Look at the requirement here. nothing to be refused if it be received with thanks giving -- not the Holiday here.

We can give God nothing. He can give us everything. Actually he already has by faith it is paid for at Calvary. Think of it this way first that we can serve him joyfully and offer that sacrifice. or offer the sacrifices of thanks and praise continually. Thanks is a action of faith. That is before we receive our petition. Not to ask only, but to thanks him for it beforehand.

Look at our example. Jesus always pleased the Father. Can we not reach the goal of being God's friend and being blessed and loved.

Thank you Jesus, thank you father , thank you Holy Spirit. thank you, thank you, praise you almighty God, bless your wonderful name. All day long. How can we be lonely, he is right there listening.
