
Subject: Trumpets

Posted by Mark L on Fri, 08 Jan 2010 18:49:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I just love them.

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cYcGpqG_T_c

Subject: Re: Trumpets

Posted by Mark L on Fri, 08 Jan 2010 19:05:16 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

That song just makes me want to go be with Jesus.

In Revelation 14/3 it talks about a new song sung by the overcomers. I think this song is more than a song. I think it is a song and movement and instruments in 144000 part harmony. The overcomers showing off the first fruits of their abilities. No one else can learn it because they aren't capable. They don't have the intelligence and ability. I don't recommend anyone see riverdance but it is that sort of idea. The point being that it is much more than a song.

This is something that has held me in the faith message for as long as I can remember. It has held me through thick and thin. The call to be part of that group. I don't care if they do make fun of us. They won't do it on that day!

Subject: Re: Trumpets

Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 14:14:13 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

hi, In Psalm 32:7 it speaks about songs of deliverance. The Israelite peoples would go to battle and when they came back with the victory, they would sing these songs as a memorial and to remember what God did for them. examples were Moses and Israel. Miriam get your timbrel out. They came out of Egypt. Note that to come out of Egypt is a type of our redemption where we are called out of Egypt--the world, and delivered from Pharaoh--Satan. there's the song of Deborah and their victory. It is very likely that we will sing the greatest song ever sung to our Jesus who gave us victory over the world and gave eternal life.

I think that if we are standing in front of Jesus as awesome and great as he is, we will be so caught up in his glory that we won't be paying any attention to each other. It will be in total harmony to the point that it will be all Jesus, a sweet fragrance of Jesus to the Father. It will be a humble adoration and because we are so full of the Spirit we will think more like we are serving each other as unto serving Christ. There won't be a river dance like on earth because they will be dancing by the rivers of living waters flowing out from the throne of God. halleluia.

That reminds me of Noah's ark they scorned and accused the brethren of sin and then the ark was caught away. I still love the enemies of my soul though ,and greatly desire for them to come on the ark which is Christ. I am thankful that he called us before the foundation of the world , and so for now I'll sing songs of deliverance each day which are a first fruits of that day before his throne that I will sing the grand deliverance song. I appreciate your enthusiasm, may God bless you. oh, I might add I had the priveledge of being a worship leader in different assemblies, on visit to faith assembly have always led there for the meetings for the visit. God is awesome in his presence. God gave me the gift of being a minstrel. each time I play and sing I prophesy or manifest a gift of the Spirit. Even receive songs from him, like last night even. Awesome God. He is supreme awesome, he is sovereign supreme awesome, he is far more than that. I am so small. In him I am risen and ressurected by h-i-s power. glory.

Subject: Re: Trumpets
Posted by james on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 14:28:51 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hardbones wrote on Fri, 08 January 2010 13:05
This is something that has held me in the faith message for as long as I can remember. It has held me through thick and thin. The call to be part of that group. I don't care if they do make fun of us. They won't do it on that day!

Amen...Hallelujah

Subject: Re: Trumpets
Posted by GWB on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 14:35:38 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brother Dave, I can truly say that no man could every accuse you of being lukewarm! That we could all seek Him as you do. What a blessing you are in Him; all glory goes to Him for your passion. In Jesus Name, I also have this kind of passion for Him.

Bro. Dave said:

"It will be a humble adoration and because we are so full of the Spirit we will think more like we are serving each other as unto serving Christ."

I think we are learning, more and more, how to humble ourselves and serve each other while we are here. How can we do it on the other side if we have not learned how to do it here on this earth?

Bro. Dave said:

"There won't be a river dance like on earth because they will be dancing by the rivers of living waters flowing out from the throne of God. hallelujah."

I love this! I love to dance before the Lord! I can't wait either!

A brother shared a testimony one time about how he was having a ball dancing before the Lord in his living room. He had music blaring. His wife and son joined in as well. What they did not realize was that the curtains were wide open on this huge window. There were a couple of neighbors standing and staring with their mouths open! He said they did not stop or let it bother them. He could have cared less what they thought!

Thanks for sharing. The Lord ministers through you in a very unique way.

Blessings,

GWB

"Be still and know that I am God."

Subject: Re: Trumpets

Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 15:19:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

After I got off the the last message I had music on my mind and started playing songs. Then came a new tune and the Lord gave me a new song. I usually don't write songs down on forum but would like to show the revelation that inspired me for the song.

a. Ps.72:6 He Jesus shall come like the rain

b. Mal. 4:2 the sun of righteousness.

c. those 2 a and b produce c. Gen.9:13 the rainbow is the covenant --it is the everlasting covenant of peace. or rest can be it called. together in this song are beautiful.

I hadn't put that all together with the bow before. I knew these things in a matter of seconds. The song is large and the music is set and finished. sweet Holy Spirit.

Subject: Re: Trumpets

Posted by GWB on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 15:54:37 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

You need to share your songs, Bro. Dave. There is a section for it.

I have some music I am going to share too. When I get the time, I am going to transfer the music from tape to CD. Then I get to figure out how to download them! You all know how much fun this will be for me!!!

I have:

"The Spirit Is Upon Me" by Gillyann (on this tape I have FA singing in the spirit. It is so fun to hear it)

FA Worship songs

" " " instrumental.

Carolyn Robinson (original tapes, Carl's original tapes he recorded for me and him singing at my wedding, Greg Snavelly, Greg Snavelly and Carolyn Robinson singing worship songs, and Melody Powers.

I am more than happy to download mine. I am not sure about the others, though, as far as copyright laws, etc. I certainly would not want to offend anybody or their families. Any help with this matter? It is AWESOME music!!!

Blessings,

GWB

Subject: Re: Trumpets

Posted by sparkles on Sat, 09 Jan 2010 18:17:31 GMT

3Hardbones wrote:

"This is something that has held me in the faith message for as long as I can remember. It has held me through thick and thin. The call to be part of that group. I don't care if they do make fun of us. They won't do it on that day!"

Agreed Hardbones. Let them laugh now, it's okay. Our response is to pray for them who choose to make fun of what we believe. It truly is a priviledge to hold fast to the word of God and the promises God has given us. It is a very humbling thing to be called servants and saints of the Lord.

An excellent Psalm to read is: Psalm 37.

verses 11-18

- 11) But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
- 12) The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.
- 13) The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.
- 14) The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.
- 15) Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.
- 16) A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.
- 17) For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord upholdeth the righteous.
- 18) The Lord knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever."

vs. 32 "The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33) The Lord will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34) Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it."

Thank God for our salvation and eyes to see and ears to hear what the Lord has for us. May God also have mercy on those who have chosen to make fun of us, and may their eyes be opened to all the blessings the Lord Jesus has for them.

And remember:

Be of good courage and He shall strengthen your heart.
