MUSLIMS KILLING AND PERSECUTING CHRISTIANS

"Villagers in several areas of the northeast Upper Nile region say that when women are captured by government forces they are asked: "Are you Christian or muslim?" Women who answer "muslim" are set free, but typically soldiers gang-rape those who answer "Christian" then cut off their breasts and leave them to die as an example for others.

Backed by muslim clerics, the National Islamic Front regime in the Arab and muslim north declared a jihad, or holy war, on the south in 1989. Since 1983, an estimated 2 million people have died from war and related famine. About 4.5 million have become refugees. Sudan's military continues to decorate and promote known war criminals such as Commander Taib Musba, who in the mid-1980s killed an estimated 15,000 unarmed, civilian, ethnic Uduk Christians. In 1986, Musba entered the Uduk tribal capital of Chali and declared to its Christians: "You are all going to convert from Christianity to islam today, because here is what's going to happen to you if you don't." Musba then killed five church leaders in front of the gathered villagers. When they refused to convert, he began killing unarmed men, women and children. Some were herded at gunpoint into a hut then run over by a 50-ton, Soviet-made tank. He also herded groups of about a dozen people into a hut, where he asked the first person "Do you renounce Jesus Christ?" Anyone who refused was killed by a three-inch nail driven into the top of the head.

Forced starvation is one of the primary tools of the Khartoum regime. When government forces attack a Christian village, they kill everyone they catch, but those who flee lose everything necessary for survival. The government comes in and burns the crops, burns grain stored, if there was any excess, burns houses down. Now you have only the clothes on your back, no tools, no cooking pots, no buckets for water, and you have to run two days through the bush in 115-degree temperatures in order to escape. In the arid wilderness, escapees try to survive on tree leaves and stagnant, dysentery-infested water. If a woman is breastfeeding, her milk dries up, and the baby starts dying. Small children, just weaned, also start dying. But all the family has to do is change their name to Muhammad or Ramadan, convert to Islam and walk the two days back to the government of Sudan who will care for them." World Net Daily

A brother that I have known for about 18 years has just returned from Jerusalem where he personally met some brothers from Sudan who were forced to watch their wives raped and then cut to death by the muslims. They escaped and walked 700 miles to freedom. They walked across the Sinai dessert without food or water. When they got to Egypt they met some Christians who smuggled them into Israel. There are more than 300 Sudanese who have arrived in Israel and they only have the clothes on their backs. PLUS MIGHTY FAITH IN GOD!! Pray for them that they will not now deny the LORD JESUS now that they are in a westernized county!

Did you know that the westernized countries are the hardest countries in the world to be a real Christian? Beware beloved!! Leonard Ravenhill said that he thought that only 2 % of the professing Christians in the USA were real Christians. Altogether Christians!!!

Today I personally saw these words and the photo. "Here is a photo of the pope kissing the koran, the unholy book of islam. Don't think this stunt didn't mean anything. Rome has been killing God's people for centuries."

If you are satisfied with what or where you are in Christ today you will probably never endure unto the end!

Our Pastor said yesterday that he was recently talking with a brother that has done a lot of work with Christians in muslim countries and when persecution starts in earnest the brother has found that on the average two-thirds of the professing Christians deny the Lord Jesus Christ to avoid persecution.

What will you do? Are you ready? Are you pressing into the Lord Jesus to be sure that you are constantly growing and that by HIS grace you will endure to the end?

Revelation 12:11 And they overcame him {the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and satan} by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Will you be part of the 2/3 that will deny JESUS CHRIST THE ETERNAL SON OF GOD?

OR will you be part of the 1/3 that will not deny JESUS CHRIST THE ETERNAL SON OF GOD?

CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY WHOM YOU WILL SERVE!!

There are no exceptions to the promises or the conditions of God!

When we pay the cost to learn the conditions then there are no exceptions!

We will forsake all and totally depend upon Him!

We will pick up our cross and follow HIM!

HE will bring us to the end of ourselves!

HE will cause us to be broken, humble and contrite!

We will be vessels of honor and not dishonor!

HE will save all our loved ones!

HE will heal all our diseases!

HE will get us out of debt and keep us out of debt!

HIS will will be done in us as it is in heaven!
Then we will inherit HIS promises including eternal life!
