
Subject: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Wed, 11 Nov 2009 02:36:56 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

This is a opportunity for all my brethren to give a short praise to God for something, it is also a lot of fun. I praise God for my wife, son ,daughter,son in law, daughter in law, 4 grandchildren, and mother in law. Acts 16:31. thank you Jesus. My God is able to do exceedingly abundant above all I ask or think.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 12 Nov 2009 01:26:05 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God for the rain he sent yesterday. each year my wife and I try to go up to the N. Alabama Mountains for a mini vacation. This weekend Sat. thru Mon. The deal is that the past couple years the Desoto park area has been dry. no waterfalls or streams had water. Only the big river falls which is not near there. The Lord sent a rain that is not normal this time of the year because it came by tropical storm. The temperature for this vacation will be in the 70's territory. we had several inches as compared to under 1 inch. Hope you see the greater works tie in. God does control the weather.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by james on Thu, 12 Nov 2009 01:44:22 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God for blessing me by letting me see someone else being blessed and giving God the glory for it.

(it blesses me to see someone else being blessed)

The rain? Some would say coincidence, I say, be it unto you according to your faith.

Did He not say He'd give you the desires of your heart, if you'd delight yourself in Him.

A-men!

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 13 Nov 2009 00:20:06 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Today I went to Gadsden Al. It was a good turnout many souls got to here the gospel of the kingdom. The presence of God was awesome. The Lord changed the message I was going to bring and it was way better. It makes a difference proclaiming the whole gospel of the kingdom with it's three aspects. I praise him for the priviledge to share his good news.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 13 Nov 2009 15:40:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

praise God, yesterday getting ready to go to meeting and truck wouldn't crank. 3 long tries and nothing. acted by faith, propped up the back door and prepared to move it close to house to load it up. 1 crank it started up. loaded up turned it off ,went in and got dressed, it cranked right up went to meeting,stopped several times it always cranked up. Was able to enjoy Japaneze buffet without having to worry. (for you) bought a Noah's ark figurine and my wife a lead crystal ring box. That evening my wife canceled our vacation because mother in law became ill. Though I realise the hidden persecution we face that others cannot see, it is all working together for my good. I rejoice to see the good things God has in store for this weekend, could be better than any vacation. We will be going next week due to reservations now made.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 15 Nov 2009 16:27:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

wow praise God-- it started last night. I have been reading a book by Carrie Judd Montgomery. it is called the life of praise. Yesterday afternoon I prayed and confessed that God would bless me above the trial of not being able to go on vacation this weekend due to a family trial. I confessed I believe Lord that you can make this weekend better than any vacation. I found that he has just done that. So while reading the book It brought a conviction. It was concerning the importance of not complaining concerning ministry results. We can't always see what God is doing beyond our vision. I apologised. He blessed the further reading of the book and made me joyful. Today while here at home, not having any assembly to go to, I am experiencing a presence and anointing that feels quite thick. I felt a desire to sing praises and the Lord gave me 2 songs, the first one was complete the 2nd one he gave me inspiration and said go get it by faith. He then showed me how he has been working in my marriage at key places. some I didn't realise. He showed how he had planted a special covenantal blessing on us and what it was. After that he gave a revelation concerning praise that has never been given before. When the reviving anointing comes on us God pours on us a tremendous amount of things. He had me go to Job 8:21 there it is revealed that Job did not begin laughing but it says God filled him with laughter. Then he showed that God himself filled him because it was by the Spirit of God making him joyful v.20 declares the contrast between a perfect-- upright man and a wicked one. then v.21 shows the word laughter-- in the Hebrew the word laughter means merriment or defiance or scorn. If a person is filled with the true Spirit of God, God may fill them with joy that produces a manifestation of joy. but if it is worked up and one is not upright in God's sight, they manifest a spirit of scorn or defiance. The devil has a hayday at deceiving in areas which people are not familiar with. we must test the spirits to see if it is of God. So God wants to profit us with things by his Spirit and out of joy and praise to him he sends wonderful manifestations of his Spirit to profit us. glory.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Tue, 17 Nov 2009 15:27:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I sent out a encouragement to many brethren this morning and when I went to rest room, and after was walking accross the living room, The Lord dropped a special personal word in my inner man. It is amazing what he can say to us. I couldn't have made that up in my own mind and meditation. I praise him for his sweet love and Spirit. truly he is the greatest,awesome wonderful God.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by james on Tue, 17 Nov 2009 17:04:38 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

brodav9 wrote on Tue, 17 November 2009 09:27 The Lord dropped a special personal word in my inner man.

As I was walking this morning I was meditating on what The Lord had given me from Titus, especially about being peculiar. Here I was, surrounded by people heading off to work; walking their dogs; or picking up the morning paper with a cup of coffee in their hands, trying to wake up; and I'm being ministered to by The Holy Spirit about being thankful for the invitation in Rev.22:17 " And The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come.

And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

And I was reminded of Is.55:1 where He said, "Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters..."

And what Jesus said in Jn.7:37 "...If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink."

WHAT AN INVITATION...I praise God today for being invited to partake of the WATER OF LIFE...JESUS CHRIST

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Wed, 18 Nov 2009 01:39:43 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

James,
Thanks for the encouraging words from the Word! Sometimes life gets so busy that I haven't always taken the time to just go to the water of life and drink freely. When I read scriptures like you shared today it is like a cold drink of water on a hot summer day. The Word of God helps us through all our trials and tribulations, but at times many have gotten too busy with the cares of this life, and at that point it is time to stop, get alone with the Lord and just enjoy Him and His Word.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Fri, 27 Nov 2009 03:26:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God for...and am thankful for...Everyday

Brothers and Sisters in The Lord who take the time and energy to share God's Word here on this forum. The encouragement in The Lord I've received here has been more than words can express. So many times someone has written what was on their heart and it has ministered to me in an area that only The Lord would know about. I'm grateful and blessed...

Thank you, brothers and sisters, for allowing The Lord to use you...

Thank you, Jesus

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Sat, 28 Nov 2009 17:07:50 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

James, I couldn't agree with you more! Last Sunday you wrote the following:

"My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Proverbs 4:20-23

God says that His Words are life unto us, to keep them in the midst of our hearts. He goes on to instruct us that we must keep our hearts with ALL DILIGENCE for the very issues of life come out of our hearts. Why is it so important to guard our hearts and minds? Because that's where the battlefield is, Satan attacks our minds and hearts with temptations to think impure thoughts, become angry, become discouraged, bitter, prideful, to speak evil of others; it all starts in the mind. The devil know that if he can defeat a Christian mentally, then he has a stronghold that will allow him to control that person in all areas of their lives. How do we OVERCOME him? By The Blood of The Lamb and by the word of our testimony; also by taking heed to guard our thoughts, to allow God's Word to transform our minds by meditating on it both day and night.

The devil knows areas in our lives where he can try to get us frustrated or angry, or say things we shouldn't. I know there is an area of my life where sometimes I have gotten angry or discouraged, and last Sunday was one of those times. I would love to walk in victory every day and not have those times, but I am not at that place yet, but am striving to overcome in this one particular area. Well, when I came to check the postings on OO the one posted above was there, and it instantly helped me to overcome. Why? Because it is the word of the Lord, and a vessel who shared what God had put on his heart. It is the kind of body ministry the God has used on this site. There isn't the criticism or hateful bantering back and forth, but rather anointed sharing with each other. That is what I appreciate about this site. It isn't one person dominating, but rather a caring for each other, and communicating between each other. So that is what I am thankful for: brothers and sisters who love the Lord and the body of Christ.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Tue, 01 Dec 2009 16:27:47 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The Lord is wonderful. He encourages our hearts in time of trouble, he is a very present help. At this time it wouldn't be so difficult if it were just people of the world hurting us, that is to be expected. Right now several Christians are working against me. The temptations are there to react but I chose to love and forgive. I believe with the help of the Holy Spirit it will all get worked out, even without my help. Through it all everything is working for my good. Sometimes we have to just stop and get alone with the Lord for a period of time. We will do best under the precious voice of God to us daily. Sometimes we have to wait on matters but God always comes through. My lesson from God is-- my cross and his work, amen. God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by GWB on Tue, 01 Dec 2009 16:59:26 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thanks brodav9. I appreciate you and what He shows you.

Blessings,

GWB

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 03 Dec 2009 15:01:16 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Yesterday was going to post but wife and I had to do business. There is a reason I say this, because I have something to tell about the post I made the day before. But first I praise God for the experience when with my wife. While in the office waiting room a elderly couple came in. They started conversation with me. We were discussing the coming snow for this Sat. I then was anointed to testify of a greater work. The night before I was impressed with the word testimony. The greater work is how I stopped my truck on a hydroplane situation. We know that it was really God, so all greater works are really him using us. To him be all the glory. years ago on the way to work heading down a hill covered completely with a sheet of ice and snow, at the bottom of the hill you will turn left or right. If you go forward you will probably die. There is a steep hill down to a block house about 6-8 car lengths. I was in a slide down the hill and couldn't stop, I shouted Jesus* my vehicle instantly made a crunch sound and it was as if the ice was disappearing. I stopped at the turn left point and went on to work praising God all the way. The lady at the office said a remarkable statement when I said I shouted Jesus. She said" that's all you had time to do. She was listening and had insight. Of course I knew now they were Christians. Now the thing I want to praise God for was that after the message I posted Tues. The next day I had a full revelation that I know God wants me to share. He led me --it wasn't me-- he led to Ps. 106:47 I was made to know that this verse is like the statement above that we have-- it is I praise God for v.47 is saying concerning God's people I praise God for. not in the same wording. The reason being that Ps. 106 is a revelation of God's mercy. I am not going to give a exposition on the Ps. but ask you to pray and read it ask God to speak to your heart by his Spirit. He already has to me. May he bless you as you do, what great love and desire of God to bring his people on with him, and give his mercies. Maybe he will let me share more, I wait on him. bless and thanks sister.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Thu, 03 Dec 2009 17:34:32 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise." Psalms 106:47

I see in this passage of scripture the purpose for God saving us; 'TO give thanks unto Thy Holy Name' and through praise, 'TO triumph', (in order 'TO' give thanks and praise, we had to be saved and gathered from among the heathen) . But also I see this scripture as another example of God wanting His people to be separate; the coming out from amongst them to live a life of worship, thanksgiving, and praise. (one could even see, if willing to seek the mind of God on it, that this could apply to the false idol worship that goes on at pagamas and estar and God's desire for true believers to be separate from pagan worship under the guise of 'celebrating Jesus' birth'.)

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 06 Dec 2009 17:22:59 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise the Lord-- I was directed to Judges 2:20 and there God expresses his anger against Israel his people. He tells them they have transgressed his covenant. It all is because they don't hear and obey his voice. In ch.6:10-14 It starts with not hearing his voice for they have worshipped other gods. Then God visits Gideon and talks with him and Gideon hears and tells God of his question. Then in v.14 Gideon will be sent to give Israel mercy and deliver them. Then this was revealed to me. not by might ,not by power, but by my Spirit saith the Lord. The Lord is giving a fortaste of Gideon's army to all who by his Spirit, go and deliver their fallen brethren, They will forgive and give mercies and see tremendous things from the Lord to accomplish this because of their faith. I praise God that he is willing to give mercies to all of the brothers and sisters who are willing to return to him. I add this. We know that we confess the word of God and stand on it for a promise, but also we have a personal relationship with him. So we believe we are forgiven if we are out of fellowship with him. I(could read 1Jn.1:9 and stand on that promise but because I have the Holy Spirit I don't just have the letter of the word. I have a promise and a relationship with God. What I am saying is that when I knew I was forgiven God by his Spirit gave me a token of his love super naturally of acceptance. I didn't have to have that, but I'm talking about what God did to Gideon. He was showing Gideon his mercy for the Israel which was important to Gideon's heart. God will not send unforgiving or those who are bitter in heart. I hope that all who hear this will see the Spirit and not the letter in Jesus name.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 10 Dec 2009 16:29:18 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God because he hasn't quit working on me. I am walking now in a special anointing and revival. It is because I allow God to deal with me regularly. Each year I am reminded by the Spirit that just because I gave up the god of the holiday season (spirit of this world) I must be aware that I am required to give up all gods including the god of self. We must overcome them all. Today I think of the great example my dad left for me. He was a member of the masonic lodge. My mother was Eastern star. God humbled my dad tremendously, though he didn't humble himself. He in my words sat his proud self down and God took the chair right from under him. He also humbled my mom. If she could tell you herself she would tell you how she died on the operating table, and came back. She wasn't ready to go. She tells of seeing the glory of Jesus and heaven. She said she was to go back and minister love to her family. I remember after dad passed on I visited her for a month. I lay in his bed and prayed with her, I did the praying and after she was always saying I pray beautiful prayers. One day I was led to deliver her house of the occult things she agreed. I led her in a prayer of repentance. Back to my dad. he was ready to sit down in the self made god chair of the masons. That was the highest chair, he would be a king of pride. That was when my mother began to have arthritis so bad that she couldn't even comb her own hair. My dad said gentleman, I cannot take this office for I must care for my wife. They accepted, and he never could even be a mason anymore--attend meetings. It is a terrible thing if we don't humble ourselves and have to have God do it. We must never forget Dan.4: where God humbled King Nebuchadnezzar. I pray for grace each day and desire to be accounted worthy to escape the things that are coming on the earth. It is true that the devil has injected some with the placebo vaccine and they will sleep through this message. It will take the grace of God that we will have the oil in our lamps when he returns. I continually find myself groaning in the Spirit, more now than ever before, I am hearing his voice more and more everyday. thank you Jesus.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 13 Dec 2009 14:29:32 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

praise God --today I was blessed with a word in the Hebrew tongue which was a tremendous revelation. It was also a word that would cause me to write a new song. The Lord is faithful to bring me into this.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 19 Dec 2009 13:38:22 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

It is my hope and faith and love, that I am not alone in this. I am going to make a command. "" Let the snow be dumped tremendously on Washington to delay the bringing forth a healthcare bill that will bring harm to all the saints of God. In Jesus name amen and amen. I praise God as he is answering prayers concerning this prior to this command. He loves --loves--loves--his sheep. Peter do you love me--3 times. God loves his sheep and will protect them. The gates of hell (hades) shall not prevail against the church. This mountain shall be moved to yonder place. God is the El Shaddai over his people. God bless our leaders with mercy to make the right decision. God bless America. Jesus name. I praise you most high God, the Godhead.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sat, 19 Dec 2009 18:01:24 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bro Dave,

Can I ask why you want a delay in the healthcare bill, and for how long do you want it delayed? And how it can bring harm to all the saints of God? I don't get the reasoning behind this 'command' for snow on Washington DC...

Maybe I'm the only person not keeping up with congress, but if you would, maybe fill me in on your thoughts about what's happening and what our role as Christian should be concerning it.

just for the record, there's nothing a healthcare bill/program can do that will harm me.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 20 Dec 2009 00:59:16 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Glad you asked bro. I don't keep up to much either, But I think this was so important that it came my way. From the understanding that I have, The healthcare bill is including mandatory coverage by law. It may not effect the poor as much as the rich, but when it is law, you are required to have medical insurance. Then if you don't you go to jail. The more prosperous brethren who I would imagine support the work of the kingdom would be more likely to go to jail. The snow is holding up progress in Washington-- the worse the better. God has brought confusion between the parties and so their not sure which way to go. they are trying to get the bill passed before the holidays. They are not even going home much but they are working overtime. The snow and the confusion are God's dealings. This I know by the Spirit. By God's grace we are at his mercies. They are new every morning and greaty is his faithfulness. As the 3 boys went into the fire they said, he is able to save us but if not save us we will not worship their gods. We can rejoice as we see the time of the Lord Jesus returning.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sun, 20 Dec 2009 01:16:11 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thanks for replying bro.

If you'll go to the 'Christian Ethics' section and read the thread titled 'Insurance As Required by Law'. That was something we were talking about a while back when I read about what the pastor at FA said concerning healthcare insurance.

I haven't thought that much about it lately, but it looks like they're going to make this a law. My position is the same as it is with auto insurance, I'll obey the law of the land as long as it doesn't supercede God's laws. Just because someone has health insurance doesn't mean they will use it.

There wasn't a lot of discussion about it then, maybe this will spark some interest in discussing what others think of the healthcare bill/law/program.

If someone is interested maybe we could discuss in under the thread with that title.....cause it's probably not something that...'I praise God for'.

So are you saying that if it delays until after the first of the year, it'll have different ramifications in relation to us? If so, 'let it snow, let it snow, let it snow...'

james

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Wed, 23 Dec 2009 15:04:44 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

God is faithful-- I woke up yesterday morning with a presence of God, that began the day wonderfully. As I was praying it occured to me to say to the Lord-- Lord you didn't answer my prayer but I do not question you. The healthcare bill passed. The Lord then gave me peace and said go online to Rusty Tardo. I had no idea why but just obeyed. When scrolling down the Lord stopped me at the 4 message series on America. He had me listen to it all. There was the answer at the end. In my words, God is not going to change the transgressions of America. The snow had 2 messages in it. It is for America.-- One ----judgement is on the way. two--- that though her sins be as scarlet they shall be whiter than snow, meaning those in her (America) God's hand is stretched out still to those who will repent and come out of her sins. I believe I know what the judgement is but at this time it is secret to me. God showed me discerning of spirits concerning Ophrah. She is mentioned in the America message. God is dealing right now with the saints in America concerning their relationship with God and their walk in the Holy Spirit. I just got blessed with several hundred dollars worth of things which God led me to get by his Spirit. He won't let me say. He is the one who leads us to many blessings. He told me someone was trying to deceive me and showed me what to do. I am safe now.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Wed, 23 Dec 2009 15:37:07 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Morning Dave,

Bro.Rusty is a blessing,isn't he? I listened to those 4 messages a good while back and was blessed to see that The Lord is showing different people around the country the same thing. As for praying about the snow and healthcare bill... we live and learn, it's not our will, but His. Don't concern yourself with the healthcare insurance deal, just keep your trust in The Lord and He will fulfill His Word to you and yours. And remember what Ps. 91 says, 'there shall no evil befall thee,neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.'

james

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Wed, 23 Dec 2009 16:37:54 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Morning Dave,

Actually the health care bill has not passed yet, the vote is planned to be Thursday morning. I don't know God's will on this bill, but I do know everything is being set in place for the Anti-Christ to come on the scene and the end of time as we know it to happen.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 04 Jan 2010 00:03:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

What a exciting way to start the new year; you see today is the Jan. 3rd. I had a dream from God on the 1st, very important thing I needed to know. It was a important pearl. He also gave the interpret.

The 2nd day He spoke to me in the morning just at waking. It was out of the very deep wisdom of God. also a pearl. on the 3rd He unlocked to me a very important key to understanding the whole bible. Amazing I even understand why he has done this. Wow what a pearl this is.

I was sitting with my mother in law, she said the fishing in ice thing could be trick photography. One time my brother sent a simular film with a fellow throwing a basketball backwards and hitting the goal, it was from center court. It sure does make one laugh.

much joy to you all. God is still on the throne.

I previewed this message, it ran all the words together, I tried to leave spaces.

*How bout a little help...dat better?

j

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Mon, 04 Jan 2010 00:29:29 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

HI Dave,
Just wondering what these pearls are. You tease us with pearls but don't share them with us. We sure would like to get in on the blessing. Does the mother in law thing have to do with the pearls? Being from the north we see ice fisherman out on the lakes all the time. Someday I wouldn't even mind trying to ice fish.

To leave spaces between paragraphs just hit the enter key a couple times. Have good evening Brother.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Mon, 04 Jan 2010 00:36:40 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I sent Dave an funny e-mail that Mark sent me about Canadians ice fishing, in case no one understands what he's refering to.

This is strange, I went in an edited his post to set the paragraphs, but the odd thing is, Dave had it spaced out right but it would only accept it when I spaced the paragraphs and re entered the post...

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by james on Sun, 10 Jan 2010 03:52:04 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I have a 'I Praise God For...' HEALING testimony.

Bare with me a moment as I share some background info. I once suffered from cluster migraine headaches, The Lord set me free and healed me back in the 80's from them and I've walked in that healing for the last 20+ years. (oh, there's been a few attempts by the enemy along the way to try an bring them back, but God has been faithful)

All day today I've battled one of the most painful migraines I've ever experienced, with the only relief coming by darkness.(it even hurt to read my computer screen, but Satan is a liar and I continued to stand on God's Word that I am healed.)

Tonite Bro. Ron posted several songs from the last seminar by Bro.Tom Hamilton, as I listened to them I was blessed. When I got to the third song, 'Sanctuary' I was filled with the presence of The Lord and got down on my knees and begin weeping and crying out unto The Lord, not about a headache, but the anointing was so great that all I could do was cry and call upon His Name. We have been sharing about God being Holy and some of His attributes and all this came flooding into my spirit. After hitting replay several times and crying myself out, I got up and sat down in my desk chair. I then realized The Lord had manifested the healing while I was in His presence.

Thank you Jesus.

Something I just thought of, Bro. Ron once shared his testimony of being delivered from cluster migraines. How about that?

Now I know a scoffer might say,'big deal', a little ole headache, I want to hear about a 'real' miracle. The healing was just a by product,(not that I'm making light of healing, I'm most grateful for it) the supernatural experience(which I didn't go seeking after) was the anointing and presence of The Holy Spirit cleansing and refreshing me.

He is HOLY, HOLY, HOLY... as a new wave of tears flow down

"With thanksgiving I'll be a living sanctuary for You.

Lord prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true."

How Great is Our God? He is worthy of ALL our praise.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by JWBTI on Sun, 10 Jan 2010 04:44:46 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise Jesus !

God Will Make a way !

Buy His Strips We are Healed !

Thru Faith in His everlasting Word !

Jesus Our Healer !

Thank you Jesus !

Remember this Song:
By the Anointing Jesus breaks the yoke
By the Holy Ghost and Power just as the prophets spoke
This is the day of the latter rain
God is moving in Power again
By the Anointing.... He Breaks the Yoke !

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 10 Jan 2010 13:49:53 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise God, I also have that testimony. It used to be so bad that I lost my eye sight. It was different being home, I could deal with it there. It was happening at work, one time I almost fainted. When I was at work a thing happened, the Lord caused me to realise that if I would stand my ground by not going home, I would be acting my faith. It was turned into many blessings as I got to believe God each time.

They would go away while working. The devil would say see you won't be able to drive home. I would just confess the blood of Jesus and cast down all imaginations. confessing the promises is how we fill up with light, just like being filled with the word.

I will reveal why. Rom.8:6 to be carnally minded is death. but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. I know that is a new principle to many concerning receiving from God, but that's one of them. Filling up with light is a major key for hearing from God, but the carnal mind must be crucified continually in order to purify the vessel to continually be filled with light. Jesus showed us 1Jn.1:5 B. God is light and in him is no darkness at all.

We were taught through FA that healing is not a miracle but is a healing. that is on the gifts of miracles tape. A miracle has two interesting things. first is-- it is recreative. such as a bone being restored. another miracle is casting out a demon. It is taught before that migraines can many times be traced back to a need for occult deliverance. God will bring the spirit into being bound by us. Isa. 53:4 the word sorrows Makob Heb. is pains. He bore our pains. I mention that when confessing Isa.53: as a promise.

I loved the man of God not just his message, I am still loyal to him.

What a amazing paradox this morning while about my business. The illumination. In Eph. 1:4 the whole passage but also-- we were chosen in him before the foundation of the earth. and then. Ps.37:12-13 the wicked plots against the righteous and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. The Lord shall laugh at him for he sees that his day is coming. In this we can look back and forwards. both verses. You see more reason why I should give you a miracle and manifest your teeth.

What is a genuine long winded preacher. 2 kinds. one in the flesh and one in the living waters, it's hard to turn off the spicket. I shall go worship now. love ya

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Sun, 10 Jan 2010 13:57:38 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise the Lord James! What a blessing the music has been. I also started to play it and worship and the presence of God was so real. I remember hearing someone say "If we worshipped and praised more, we would have to rebuke the devil less." Obviously there are times we need to do the rebuking, but God does inhabit the praise of His people.

I think sometimes we forget the power there is in praise, I know I have. These songs have convicted me I need to start praising and thanking God more for my families salvation and other things am believing for. Maybe some laugh at our "positive confessions" but that's okay, because it blesses our heavenly Father to hear our thanks and praise.

Thanks so much for sharing the testimony of healing!

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 10 Jan 2010 14:44:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

After I got off the forum from the last message Jan.10 . I was sitting in my study and saw Ps.95:2 The memory was quickened to this song, if we sow to the Spirit,of the Spirit we'll reap life, if we sow to the flesh we'll reap ---sorrow--- but if we sow to the Spirit of the Spirit we'll reap life so when we sow,so shall we reap. that is a wonderful FA song. Rom.8:6 enmity is the same as enemy. A spiritual mind is not full of knowledge as much as filled with anointed thinking. both go together.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by GWB on Mon, 11 Jan 2010 05:46:18 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

It looks like the Lord moved mightily while I was watching my grand-kids for two days. PTL!

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 14 Jan 2010 01:02:57 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I want to praise the Lord, By what I'm going to say is to reveal something truly amazing. Look at this in view of a love for Americans. We love our neighbors. We want God to be merciful and remove the H1N1 virus flu from our nation. We know faith is not a time factor just believing. So now we have something to show God. Lord Jesus son of our heavenly Father, we pray that you see our fellow neighbors reaching out to bring mercy and aid to Haiti. We know it is not a thing of perfection but it is a thing of charector. this is more important to you than our works--it's our charector. Lord when the enemy comes in like a flood raise up a standard against him. Also we pray for our younger Christian brethren who are in their early stages of growth. They need protection to. In Jesus name.

I praise God for today. I sat and walked with Jesus for 6-8 hours today. We talked together. He told me things that I never knew. just to give an example he said when I am talking with you you don't have to reason or think just listen. sometimes he gave me whole sermons that would take a hour and a half to preach in just 2 minutes. He thinks a whole lot faster than I do. I have used the ink of almost 2 pens this past 2 weeks just writing down what he's telling me. I have seen several miracles just while talking with him. He confirms beyond your imagination.

one example- He was talking to me about Paul and how he wasn't asking for money just taking up collections. Paul taught a lot about giving but was only saying you reap what you sow. Then he said you cannot serve God and mammon. He had me repeat it 3 times. Then said Peter was asked lovest thou me. 3 times. That's why he asked me to repeat 3 times. He wanted to show me that love God by loving the saints when I send you to minister to them. Then there was a knock on the door. I peeped out but didn't answer, I knew what it was. I said to my wife ask her mother if that was who I thought it was. She said yes. I was talking to Jesus and didn't want to be distracted by who was at the door. Jesus had spoke to me and had told me you see he is a servant of mammon, and has not faith. You shall serve me only and your needs will come to you. The man was out begging for money. Sin knocks (lieth) at the door of every minister who preaches for money. We are to preach Christ. May heavenly manna fall on you all, Jesus name.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by GWB on Thu, 14 Jan 2010 01:43:49 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bro. Dave said:

"He thinks a whole lot faster than I do."

This statement is priceless. It is a good thing too!...for all of us.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by GWB on Thu, 14 Jan 2010 17:52:40 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In rereading this today, I did not want you to misunderstand what I was saying. Also, I did not want the devil to use it in anyway.

I meant that God is always there for All of us. He is so big and awesome that I can only go so far when I try to understand Him, let alone His thought patterns!

You have been a huge blessing to the site and He has used you to minister to me in many ways.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 21 Jan 2010 02:40:44 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I was so shaken myself as tonight I was brought to the realization of how soon the Lord is coming. God wants us to know this. I was in deep worship and the Spirit of travail came upon me. God was going to tell me something extremely important. I couldn't wait to pass it on.

I have sent this earthquake to Haiti, today I have sent the after shock. I am even using the financial aide of Americans to to help crumble the economics of America. I am in the process of shaking everything in the heavens and the earth. This is my will. Only those who are walking in the Spirit and faith will not be shaken. Martrdom is not a shaking it is a sweet smell to the father of Christ. Confusion is on every side, even as I turned the council of Ahithophel, I will not turn the councils of the leaders, for then they would make the right decision, they will make the wrong decisions. Prayer may delay these councils.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 29 Jan 2010 17:12:39 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise God. I had just thanked the saints, last night for their prayers in the Spirit. I did this in my post last night on oo. It is found on the second post to the instructions to overcomers.

Bro. James was praying for me also, he said that I should seek the Lord about a certain thing. I was studying a particular matter, and I looked up the scriptures that would show me what I was looking for.

There it was 1Cor.14:26 I was looking up the word revelation. but the rest of the verse showed that if we have a revelation or anything else that is from the Lord it must be done to edify.

So now I see that it is better to edify than to give the revelation. in verse 11 it shows that while I'm giving a true revelation from God I can be thought of as a Barbarian. God forbid that I should be a Barbarian as I bring forth what Jesus has given me.

Also the Lord showed me that if this forum were to be a Assembly, woman would not be allowed to speak at all. Except for prophesy and those things. Women are very valuable to the body, but we all have a calling to abide by according to the scriptures.

I want to apologise for any confusion I may have caused. I guess I'm a little rusty being out of a Assembly for 10 years. I have been evangelising for the 10 years, but that was mostly calling people to Jesus. In that way have I been in the Spirit.

May all our future fellowship be edifying, and glorify Jesus. I praise Jesus for his full time fellowship with me, as I await by faith for the body he has--placed me in. love to all.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 29 Jan 2010 18:10:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

This is a reply to the message I just gave. After posting my apology for confusion, I was in prayer. Jesus spoke to me and said go back and tell them, about the dream.

I had posted on a earlier date that I was given a dream by the Lord about fishing. It tells of how I was in a room and many fishing poles were standing up. Their lines were all out in the water. Well I slung my line out while standing backwards, and the line went over my head, it wrapped around to the back of me and the hook grabbed the lower line and I couldn't undo it. A man came and picked me up to releive the tension and set me free. I gave the interpretation.

It was that when I make a mistake the Holy Spirit(who was the man standing behind me) would help me out of the mistakes of my own making.

Well I made the mistake he was aware of, before it happened. He was letting me know it was coming by the dream. He was gentle with me, I don't deserve it.

Why?? because I am the puffer fish. God shows me great wonderful things and then I have a knowledge and share it with others. I didn't see my heart but he showed me that when I made the mistake (showed by the dream) of fishing. It was more to show the knowledge.

If I had brought it forth by love it should have edified. I didn't have bad intent or he would never given me the dream and pufferfish revelation. It was just that what he is doing is perfecting my love. I do love but not as perfectly as he wants. I am determined to do better, by his grace and sufficiency. Isn't Jesus wonderful, I want to be a better disciple.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Fri, 29 Jan 2010 19:08:21 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

brodav9 wrote on Fri, 29 January 2010 12:10 I do love but not as perfectly as he wants. I am determined to do better, by his grace and sufficiency. Isn't Jesus wonderful, I want to be a better disciple.

Amen...Yes, Jesus is wonderful.

Humble hearts and a teachable spirit,

God can work with...He resist the proud.

May we all seek to be better disciples...

james

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 30 Jan 2010 14:37:36 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The Lord is wonderful. We can make mistakes and his Holy Spirit helps us. It says in the word that if we confess our faults one to another we shall be healed.

If we didn't have the Holy Spirit, we would never have the courage to tell others our faults. Neither would we have inner conviction of sin and things that may be wrong with us.

We need the Holy Spirit every day to keep us out of the troubles and temptations we must face. In the Lord's prayer, we see where it says give us this day our daily bread, that seems to imply that must be a prayer daily. So the whole prayer must be daily.amen?? Therefore in the rest of the prayer it says lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

That is a good prayer to pray daily, then we have the promise that with every temptation the Lord shall make a way of escape.

The Lord has been speaking to me concerning my dogs. The first one was that my dog in the music studio that I have, has recently been doing her business on the floor. 2 weeks now. every day. but all of a sudden the dog in the house is starting to do it. it was not every day.

I am noticing a pattern here. why both at the same time?? Well then the Lord showed me something. I really needed to know something, you know what I mean?? It was not good. It is the devil. but two things have happened. the first is that a few months ago at work I had been given a bunch of sheets that were no good anymore. God has provided for this problem until he delivers from the situation. I use the sheets to wipe up the wet floor.

God provided before the problem ever happened. second, he spoke to me and said in my words-- both dogs are doing this, but I will turn this curse into a blessing. All my people who have bad habits and certain sins in their lives, as well as sin from time to time, are pictured here.

They continually sin, but I still love them, for you did not get rid of the dogs because you love them. I have to clean them up often as they come and ask me for forgiveness, those who don't come to me and ask forgiveness --if-- they sin, assume all is well with them. but I say to you (David) that even as you have repented of things, I have provided grace beforehand to clean up your mess, even a double portion of grace.

remember what I said about confess your faults?? It also says and they shall be healed. The dog message is that healing. next time I will tell you what he said about my dog's tail.

Just before I got on the forum I checked my emails . My wife had received a message with dog pictures. she forwarded them to me. That is something that before I sent this post there was a dog email. It had in it things about the next message on the dog tail. next time. God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 31 Jan 2010 21:08:59 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

it is truly my desire to glorify the Lord with this testimony. I am tempted not to share it because I don't want any glory. So to make it clear the purpose is to wow you and say you can have this from Jesus to. Okay??

I was in a certain Assembly. Several years ago. I say no names.

The pastor and I were real close, I had the privilege of serving the Lord together with him. That was special. I still love him like a real brother as of in a family. The assembly and my brother fell. Nuff said.

The wonderful Lord Jesus reminded me of something the brother said. He said the Lord gave him a double portion ministry. I knew that in a special way, because he and I served together in two assemblies. He had a satellite church. That means a travel ministry. Two churches is 2 that is a double portion.

Double portion, is a double blessing of everything. You will note that in my post I talk about 2 dogs and how that meant a double portion of grace and mercy. This post should be attached to that one. Every time in the past when I visited FA, I would go with the pastor and we would serve the Lord together by going to his satellite church.

Today I am excited for I didn't see it. The other day I wrote my family a love letter, and was talking about how we loved them before they were even born by giving them something we loved. We loved the bible and gave them bible names. That was before they were born. I go on to tell them Eph.1:4 how we are in the image of God, and we loved them before they were born. Then I say God loved them before the foundation of the world. It was his love that was before they were born.

I added extra for my wife. I told her that the Song of Solomon was the greatest work of Solomon. ch.2:1 My wife's name is there. She is Linda Sharon. I revealed to her her name is there in the great Song, and she is great to me. . My son wrote me back and said "I love you to dad." I had said in the letter also that I wrote that because sometimes we have to tell people we love them.

Today God opened my eyes to see something. He shows I gave you a son and a daughter. that is a double portion. Then he gave a sign. My wife and daughters middle name is Sharon and my son and I He is middle name David , which is my first name. We both never knew those names were a sign of a double portion.

I remember when my wife retired for the evening. As I was resting but awake I heard, Bethany is coming in the morning. Bethany Sharon was born 2:00 a.m.. That was before she was born. God loved her before she was born and was excited to tell me about it. I hope you see that to.----- God bless David. Praise God.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 07 Feb 2010 23:42:05 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God for what we had. It will be difficult to find it just now. God is in the process of restoration.

The Lord reminded me of this in a special way. My desire is to show you who have been blessed the same.

The Lord did not command me but invited me to go somewhere with him. I said yes Lord I will go. I still felt as though I was obeying him. I have no problem with that. He reminded me of a church I was invited to go to. That was 2-3 years ago. I didn't want to go because I had a idea what it was like.

I had a couple scriptures to bring with me. The Lord gave them in the morning. It seemed as though I was prepared to go by the Spirit. It all didn't happen the way I thought. The word that I had was from the Lord.

By the time I was ready to leave the house I was in the Spirit and full of the Holy Spirit. I had to look in the mirror to see if I was proper, but saw I was full of the Holy Spirit. You will always be full of the Holy Spirit but when going on a mission you will even see it. God ministered to me the whole trip there.

I was to know that what I was told before, you can't help denominations or anybody if you don't love them. I know that but I found he was reminding me because of what I was going to see. It is easy to criticize those who are in error, and forget to love our enemies. It tells us that we must minister in meekness considering ourselves.

Even when the offering plate came I have in the past gave nothing. I thought that I would be supporting them. Very important here, you must be led of the Spirit. In my case The Lord told me to give a little something. Not a quarter but a dollar bill. I should fold it up so not to see it and before they come pray. He showed me I wasn't just giving it to them. First I was giving it to Jesus. That is fulfilling the word which tells us to give. Next he showed me that I was loving my enemies. It was then I saw that it all was for the Lord.

Next as I was to just watch and listen, The message came, there was a picture on the screen that they use for people to sing along. the picture was of folded hands and the scripture was Rom. 12:1-2. as I looked down my hands were folded. I don't do that anymore like I did as a child. I didn't even know they were folded. The message was on total commitment. total surrender. I have the gift of discerning of spirits. It is not always fun to have that gift.

I am able to see and hear demons, all the time. Because it is a gift that doesn't function apart from the Holy Spirit, you have to be hearing God's voice continually. 24/7. The Lord allowed me to see what was behind the desire for commitment. It just happened to be The biggest football game of the year. Half the congregation was not there they said.

That was true, but there is more. most of the message was directed for commitment by other things said. I won't mention them but the whole idea is covetousness. Money is the whole motive for a church who is not right with God. Think of it what else could they want???

Ministry apart from glorifying Jesus is just for money and things, it is very religious, until you look at it in parallel with what the whole purpose of God is. That is the body and the head Jesus.

no offensive words come forth. The speaking well of all religions joining together. the people don't function, we heard 15 minutes from the wife of activities which were before the message on all kinds of fun activities. They have a praise team so you don't have to. no gifts, just people who shout amen from time to time. The pulpit people control the whole thing--no 5-fold ministry just bishops, elders, pastor, woman pastors for women only meetings. Children leave to go to children church because the message is to high level for them.

I didn't enjoy them but had joy inside because the whole time the Spirit was telling me wonderful things even though I was still hearing them. I was in the Spirit and covered with the blood.

So why am I praising God. because I know God's secrets and what he is getting ready to do. I am thankful for the past. Truly something bigger than ever is on the way.-- That message is very long. There is a big difference from knowing truth, and having it. The truth is Jesus and if we have him we have it all. but now we must enjoy it. example doesn't joy come after repentance??? Even that is for us to enjoy.

The people in the churches must first get rid of the golden cow, before they can enjoy putting Jesus first and go into restoration. God love you.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Thu, 11 Feb 2010 19:05:21 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

So do you think the reason Jesus had you go to this church was to remind you of what we once had(and to remember to always be thankful), or was it to show you what is lacking in the church system today? You mention loving your enemies, do you think maybe He was showing you how dead the church is now, so that when He brings repentance and it changes, you'll understand it was Him.

Do you feel that by just 'going' and 'giving' that you're loving them, as opposed to not going to their church means that you don't love them? btw: think He will ask you to go back next week?

Also, you said that you were filled with The Spirit before going, did the anointing remain upon you, or was the deadness of the service and lack of God's presence a quenching of The Spirit?

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 12 Feb 2010 16:54:56 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I appreciate your interest. Do you remember when Moses went down with the 2 tablets, and he threw them down in anger.?? We know that Moses didn't know what was going on. He saw them worshipping a golden calf. Just to add to that anything that doesn't put God in first place is the same as a golden calf-cow.

Now I know I may be misunderstood so I will say that we're not talking about literal cows. We are talking about idolatry and other gods.

Believe you me if God didn't tell Moses to go up and receive 2 more tablets, he would have said to those people forget you. It is not possible to love your enemies. You see that example with Moses. But they are still God's people. Sometimes we see with our eyes and not listen to the Holy Spirit. Moses had to hear from God to be able to love those people. That is the basis for true love. Moses brought back the love of God to those people who he would have hated. We didn't see there that he repented, but he must have since he led them on.

Well if we are sent we wouldn't love what they are doing. We still loved the preacher in the place where you and I went. We didn't know he was doing that, but if we did we still probably would have stayed and prayed for him. I'm not sure if you know what I mean. Remember the Corinthian church?? They prayed for that brother who was fornicating. They turned him over to the devil for the destruction of the flesh (so that he may be saved.) That is love.

The bible says we have an anointing. It is never taken away. The anointing is the Holy Spirit. The anointing I had was stirred up, so as to go with power to do a job I was sent to do. We have been taught that we are accountable for the light we have. Others who don't have the light do need light to come to them, or they will perish. If we don't love them we won't go.

I have been back, I do say I had to know I was sent. I knew I would find darkness there. But I was the light. I am making headway with the pastor and Elder there. A certain brother I knew went to a church once, he shared with the pastor there and somehow knew the Pastor. He gave the Pastor the JDS book by Dr. Hobart E. Freeman. The Pastor read it and He was not willingly rebellious by embracing such a doctrine, but repented and thanked the brother. He then as Pastor brought the whole congregation to repentance.

The sons of God are led of the Spirit. They serve as led by the Lord. David didn't look at Goliath as a giant but as an enemy of Israel. We could apply that as we don't look at their darkness but how we may accomplish a goal. If we are led to help people we don't look at the darkness. We could never have a deliverance ministry, if we looked at the demon and not our love for them to be delivered.

Not every situation is the same. Sometimes our discernment shows us exactly what's going on there. I know when a preacher is covetous even though he never says the word money. A Spirit has such control of him that there are other signs. What he treasures is in his heart. It will come out in his conversation.

I shared with his congregation on the 2nd visit and they were nodding their head in agreement. As I started speaking I got cotton mouth and my mind couldn't piece things together. All of a sudden my mouth became miraculously moist and my mind became clear and the people were receiving my message. The pastor was even giving input and confirming the message. They believe in the baptism by the way.

What I know about this though is I'm a man on his own. I have no backup from a body or intercessors. I stand on faith alone. So I have to believe for God's all sufficient grace. I still appreciate any who do after reading this message. I am truly grateful that I have such abundant light. Now I will take it and use it and not bury it under a bushel. I want others to see my light to glorify Jesus. Not to just have it as a badge for others to see I have it. may we all bring forth 100-fold fruit, some 30 some 60.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Fri, 12 Feb 2010 18:05:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"I'm not sure if you know what I mean"

I know what you mean... and you're right about loving him, in fact I still have a place for him in my heart, I received a lot of sound teaching through him over the years.

When you started writing about Moses and the golden calf, I thought there for a minute that you were going to say that they had a decorated tree in the church and you destroyed it. I'm not being funny, it happened to me and I really wrestled with whether or not I should go by the church on Saturday night and throw it all out...I didn't, but I wanted to.

Keep us updated as you continue to minister the truth to them, and one other thing...don't assume that you're on your own without support from your brethren, I can tell you that God has intercessors scattered in different locations, and that if He has sent you there, He will have people praying concerning the situation.

Oh! And I praise God for....snow in Alabama...it's beautiful.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by JWBTI on Fri, 12 Feb 2010 21:48:50 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise the Lord Brother,

Mark 16:15 And he(Jesus) said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Jesus said: Go into all the World and if the the dead church is still in the World, I guess we need to go there and Preach the Gospel so some might be Saved!

Mark 16:20 And they went forth, and preached every where, (Even in the synagogues ?) the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Seems to me that the term, Every Where..... Means..... Every Where !
Blessings

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 01:14:45 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Quote: Mark 16:20 And they went forth, and preached every where, (Even in the synagogues ?)

Seems to me that the term, Every Where..... Means..... Every Where !

Yes, I think you are right, the fields are ripe to harvest. Our vision needs to be enlarged!

Speaking of the need to enlarge our vision, I found a guy on the internet that has enlarged his vision so much that it includes "everybody".

That's right, everyone is going to hell unless they join the true church:

<http://www.atruechurch.info/home.html>

And we thought we were the only ones... tsk, tsk, tsk.

This guy has taken elitism to a whole new level. We all should be ashamed.

I'm packing my suitcase and heading home... I can't compete with this guy!

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by Mark L on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 15:07:37 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Very interesting website. He believes (surprise surprise) in polygamy. I don't know what he practices. But that is what he believes.

I was thinking as I looked at his site that if he has a church of only 50 people and knows of no other . . . what is he going to do with the teaching of a 144,000.

It reminds me of the old joke. Somebody died and went to heaven and an angel was showing them around and they came to a group of people praising and singing. Very sedate and restrained but genuine and happy. Everyone in a shirt and tie. That's the Presbyterians he said. Saw another group really belting it out happy and joyful but . . . hands clearly at their sides. The Baptist there he was informed. Walking along another group came into view. Dancing praising singing really letting loose. Jesus was clearly the focus (although they weren't sure of much else) The charismatics obviously. A little further they came to a compound with "very" high walls. Very happy singing interspersed with shouts of praise. The angel said; "That's the Darwin Fish group they think they're the only ones in here."

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 16:53:59 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Here is another interesting site.

<http://www.bethelministries.com/>

If you click on the pastor phenomenon (I dont advise the sisters to do so) you will see some pretty far out articles.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 17:28:36 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

That's one way to ensure that the sisters will read it...(just advise them not to) Just kidding, ladies.

Wow! I had found an article written by Harry Bethel on nonresistance a while back that was very scriptural, I didn't know he had all these other views. Actually, if ya go down the list, quite a few are Biblically sound, but he has been lead astray in some areas...obviously.

Just more reason to be dilligent and guard against 'men beguiling you with enticing words'. Col.2:4

The enemy uses partial truths to deceive, people tend to let down their guard and be less discerning when they become comfortable with someone, thinking that sense one thing they say is right, then everything must be right. Ya see it all the time with a lot of the TV evangelist/preachers, they have truths they proclaim, but mixed in is false teachings and errors.

This is not a time to be spiritually lax, Satan is working overtime to kill and destroy Christians, as he knows his time is drawing to an end.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by JWBTI on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 18:15:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

(I dont advise the sisters to do so) !!!!??????

I knew it was a trick ! Ya gotta watch those old gray heads.

2 on his list under pastor phenomenon

A God-sent pastor would not teach that the Atonement of Christ included physical healing. Although God sometimes miraculously heals, it is not part of the Atonement.

Opps.....Too Late.....Looks like we are all in trouble now !

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 18:53:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I'm not sure we are seeing it from the same perspective...

Forget for a moment that these guys have a measure of scriptural error in their teaching, that isn't a rare thing. In the link I gave (Fish) there wasn't a whole lot of outright error presented, in fact he was pretty much right on most of the stuff I read, the question is not whether or not there is an element of error presented, there always is, at least in my experience, but the question I would like to ask is this: What is wrong with this guy? (Again, forget the few areas of doctrinal disagreement... I'm not saying that that isn't important, but just for the sake of this discussion --forget it!)

I want to find out if anyone thinks that this person is wrong in anything other than a few doctrinal issues.

The guy (Fish) is obviously committed to what he believes. He is committed to the Word of God. He no doubt would change his position, or his views, if it could be shown that they were unscriptural. So what makes him wrong? What makes him different from us?

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 20:09:42 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

moulder wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 12:53 I'm not sure we are seeing it from the same perspective...

(Again, forget the few areas of doctrinal disagreement... I'm not saying that that isn't important, but just for the sake of this discussion --forget it!)

I want to find out if anyone thinks that this person is wrong in anything other than a few doctrinal issues.

Maybe we aren't seeing it from the same perspective...but Hey, for the sake of this discussion I'll try to ignore his position on vices...just because he likes to take a little snort while firing up a stogie at the casino, has a sexual hangup and wouldn't mind having a few slaves; he is against xmas, that's a plus, but wait, he doesn't use the KJV only bible. OK, so we're ignoring those issues(don't want to come across as legalistic), what is the difference between Mr. Darwin Fish and you or I?

Other than doctrinal issues? Yeah, I think this person is defending his desire to not crucify the flesh and justifying carnal behavior.

btw: B-I-N-G-O, Now there's an innocent little game, the bible doesn't mention it...sure is causing a commotion in Alabama.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Sat, 13 Feb 2010 21:42:24 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

moulder wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 12:53 (Again, forget the few areas of doctrinal disagreement...
The guy (Fish) is obviously committed to what he believes.

Your being facetious, Right William?

I mean we have a few areas of doctrinal disagreements with JW's and they are obviously committed to what they believe.

How about the Mormans, Catholics, Oneness doctrine churches. We have a few areas of doctrinal disagreement with them as well, and they are obviously committed to what they believe.

Aren't doctrinal disagreements the essence of what separates a true disciple of Christ and one who is deceived?

Look how many don't believe that Jesus is the eternal son of God and is God.

I have always believed that if a person does not have the correct view of the Trinity then all their theology is in question.

I gotta agree with James and his post.

Well for what it's worth that's my two cents.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by JWBTI on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 01:16:44 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

William,
(Ref the True Church)

I am sad that we didn't make his list of villains.

I want people to talk about me, I want them to whisper about what I Believe and how I live, I want to be notorious in a good way.

Remember how it was in the good old days when we were basking in the freshness of our New Birth and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. We would walk into a store or a restaurant and people would go silent and start whispering (Those people are Barners, cult members, they go to that warehouse over there in the corn field. They speak in tongues, they are always Praising the Lord and seem to be happy all the time. They believe they can lay hands on the sick and heal them. I saw one of them laying hands on his car one day when it wouldn't start. Well, did it start ? Yes it did!.wow ! Strange people ! Oh ! What about those women , Always wearing long dresses and those little place mats on there heads. My God ! Don't they believe in birth control either ? Look at all those children !)

Yes I want to be the center of controversy when it comes Jesus and His Everlasting Word.

Oh Lord ,bring that smoldering flax back to a raging fire as it was in the Days of our first Love !

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 01:56:29 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

JWBTI wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 19:16
Remember how it was in the good old days when we were basking in the freshness of our New Birth and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit.

One of my most favorite passages to go to when I need that remembrance is Ps 51:12. Restore unto me the JOY of thy salvation. Or as it says in the Hebrew "Take me back to the cheerfulness, specifically gladness, joy, mirth, rejoicing of thy liberty, deliverance, prosperity, safety, salvation.

Many times in the old testament the Lord cautioned Israel to remember what I have done for you. I believe we New Testament people all too soon forget what The Lord has done for us as well.

Lord I repent and thank you for my salvation.

Dick

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 03:19:13 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

grandom wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 15:42moulder wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 12:53
(Again, forget the few areas of doctrinal disagreement...
The guy (Fish) is obviously committed to what he believes.

Your being facetious, Right William?

I mean we have a few areas of doctrinal disagreements with JW's and they are obviously committed to what they believe.

How about the Mormons, Catholics, Oneness doctrine churches. We have a few areas of doctrinal disagreement with them as well, and they are obviously committed to what they believe.

Aren't doctrinal disagreements the essence of what separates a true disciple of Christ and one who is deceived?

Look how many don't believe that Jesus is the eternal son of God and is God.

I have always believed that if a person does not have the correct view of the Trinity then all their theology is in question.

I gotta agree with James and his post.

Well for what it's worth that's my two cents.

Why don't you tell me what you really believe? Stop beating around the bush! <grin>

No, I'm not being facetious, but I'll have to let it go at that until I've got more time...

Summary:

No one has reached doctrinal equality. You don't believe exactly the same as I do, and I don't believe exactly the same as you do, yet we get along... at least I get along with you.

James, I didn't read everything about the guy, there was a ton of stuff, but the things I did read, I agreed with, but because I didn't read everything I asked that you forget the doctrinal stuff---that is why I said forget the doctrinal stuff. (I made it CLEAR that the doctrinal stuff is IMPORTANT, did I not?)

Having said that James, we too have doctrinal differences, yet I do not in any way consider you "deceived" nor do I think you are destined for hell because you don't see things my way. Nor would I use any of the other adjectives that the Fish guy calls those who do not agree with him.

I can say the same thing for Ron, Hardbones, Sage, etc., etc., which is why I asked the initial question.

If all of you can find enough common ground to consider yourselves capable of fellow-shipping with each other and with me, by laying aside our doctrinal differences, why is it that this guy cannot do the same?

If none of us has achieved "doctrinal equality" with each other, why are we able to fellowship with each other?

Or maybe I'm kidding myself, maybe we all are still so standoffish that we are not willing to give of ourselves to each other. (I use "we" only editorially... I personally can get along with all of you despite the fact that we hold different opinions about things... why? Because I know that you love Jesus and His Word, as much as I do).

My point about the Fish guy was this-He apparently had the Word of God as his standard of behavior. (I didn't read or get the impression that he was living for the flesh, James.) Yet having the Word as his standard he could not find any thing (not one good thing) to say about any one or any one who has ever ministered the gospel. Isn't something wrong with that picture?

If you don't think so you may as well put out a list of your own doctrinal beliefs (now don't be shy, include everything) and call it the really-true-church, and be against every one else. At least respect the guy for standing up for his beliefs!

Dick, you said: "Aren't doctrinal disagreements the essence of what separates a true disciple of Christ and one who is deceived?"

Doctrinal disagreements (which I asked to be left out of the picture for the above stated reasons) do not equate to true and false disciples. If that is the case you have a bunch of problems in Acts 15. Most of these disagreements were honest disagreements, and even after James made the decision that the Jerusalem Church adopted, Paul didn't adopt the same standards as James listed. Would you not consider both to have been "true disciples of Christ"?

James considers lighting up a stogie a sin, which I suppose he considers this to be a doctrinal issue, since he brought it up as one of the things that I suggested we forget momentarily... I don't. He bases his viewpoint on the Bible, I base my viewpoint on the Bible. So using your standard, who is the "true disciple" here?

If I hold faithfully to my belief and he holds faithfully to his belief, we can each exclude the other from being true disciples of Christ -- WHICH IS WHAT FISH DOES!

If you consider that to be facetious, I don't, I think it is sad.

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by Mark L on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 03:41:05 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I pretty much have to agree with moulder here. What really stuck out to me was his belief that anyone "off" in any way from the bible is a deceiver. And it was his take on the bible that was the standard to be met. There was absolutely no give there. He really reminded me of someone over on Factnet. (can't remember his name)

I have done a fair bit of reading in church history and some of the groups down through history had some very strange theology. Yet on the core issue of Jesus they were right on. I would be more or less in agreement with Grandom that if you're off on the Godhead then you're off.

I didn't read everything on Fishs site but I think he believes if you don't agree with the biblical (his take) teaching on polygamy you can't be saved. That is what would differentiate him from all of us.

The funny thing is that he and his group in spite of his weird opinions will probably enter in.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by grandom on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 11:24:55 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

[quote moulder wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 21:19

If you consider that to be facetious, I don't, I think it is sad.

[/quote]

The reason I asked if you were being facetious is because in the past you have posted to spark discussion. It wasn't meant in any way to upset you. Again the problem with the absence of face to face discussion one misinterprets what is written.

I can't speak for James but if he feels smoking a stogie is a sin he is not alone. But I add that I consider it a sin just for me. If you enjoy them have at it. I believe my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and as such I don't believe He enjoys cigar smoke.

We each have different beliefs of what sin is or is not (apart from direct mention in the Bible) because of what the Holy Spirit has revealed to us in our study of scripture. We each receive revelation based on our obedience to the revelation we have already received. If the Holy Spirit has revealed an area in my life that He wants me to deal with and I disobey, guess what I won't receive more revelation until I obey what I have received. What He wants me to obey may not be a problem in your life but He feels it is a problem in mine. So therefore as long as I don't try to enforce in your life what He has clearly said is wrong with my life then we have basis for fellowship. The Bible clearly states I am to work out my own salvation, not anyone else's. We have trials and tests designed for each one individually. He is striving to make us Holy and some of us require a lot more work than others.

Since you don't want to dismiss doctrine or at least Fish's doctrine I guess the subject is closed.

Lord Bless

Dick

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by james on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 13:09:57 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

james wrote on Sat, 13 February 2010 14:09

Maybe we aren't seeing it from the same perspective...but Hey, for the sake of this discussion I'll try to ignore his position on vices...just because he likes to take a little snort while firing up a stogie at the casino, has a sexual hangup and wouldn't mind having a few slaves; he is against xmas, that's a plus, but wait, he doesn't use the KJV only bible. OK, so we're ignoring those issues(don't want to come across as legalistic), what is the difference between Mr. Darwin Fish and you or I?

I think I understand what you're pointing out William, and I've been guilty of that mindset before; but what I was trying to say in my post was that Mr. Fish had a list of his beliefs/position/convictions as to what he believed the bible has to say(or not say) about the things he listed. Among them was, tobacco, alcohol, gambling, slavery, masturbation, christmas, and a few others.

Since you said forget the doctrinal point,(and in my mind, these don't all fall under doctrine) so in trying to show a difference between him and us/me/we, it seems to ME that he was making excuses for someone(maybe not even himself) to partake in these 'vices' or habits...or what ever one might call them, just because the bible didn't specifically mention them by name. So I was, in a light hearted manner, pointing it out.

Do I think a person will go to hell if they smoke, drink, gamble, celebrate christmas, not use the KJV Bible, have slaves, or any of the others things on his list? Like Dick said, I can only account for my own actions...I don't believe God wants me doing those things. btw: I'm not perfect(as if I needed to clarify that) apart from owning slaves(and some former employees might have a different opinion) I've partook of most of these things, at one time or another in my life. But what does the scriptures say over and over? "But such WERE ye..." Were, as in past tense, as in put off the old man, as in 'seeking' to be holy as HE is Holy.

I'd imagine that your point is, the intolerance, or unwillingness to be long suffering with others.(especially since he has just recently come to this 'light', he mentions being under deception for years) That is something we should all dilligently guard against...remembering that, we're instructed to 'love' one another, along with having 'faith'. (and I'm not avocating tolerating heresy or doctrinal errors, nor do I think you are, William)

And just as we misunderstand each other, from time to time, we still should seek to give each other the benefit of the doubt. Some of us use different methods to get a point across, I believe William has a way of wording things that causes one to reflect and 'think' about what he saying. Sometimes that's good(when we can 'figure'it out) others sometimes write in a more direct way(with less finesse),yet we all are passionate about what we believe.

I want to say that, though my love hasn't yet been perfected, as best I understand love(and what better understanding of love is there than what Jesus did for us in laying down of His life for us...so ought we to lay down our lives for the brethren) I desire to have that same love for each and every member of the Body of Christ.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by JWBTI on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 13:27:06 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

William wrote:
(The guy (Fish) is obviously committed to what he believes. He is committed to the Word of God. He no doubt would change his position, or his views, if it could be shown that they were unscriptural. So what makes him wrong? What makes him different from us?)

Reply:
How are theses guys different from us ?
They both posted on their web sites every thing they believe and set their standards for salvation and fellowship.
I have posted many things in my heart ref the same and set forth my own standards at times also. Then I became legalistic, that isif ya don't do it my way, it's wrong ! The Pharisee attitude. It appears to me what these guys are saying, If you don't met their posted standards you can't fellowship with them cause you are lost !

Iâ€™ve done the same in the past, please forgive me Lord !

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 19:44:29 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

JWBTI wrote on Sun, 14 February 2010 07:27William wrote:
(The guy (Fish) is obviously committed to what he believes. He is committed to the Word of God. He no doubt would change his position, or his views, if it could be shown that they were unscriptural. So what makes him wrong? What makes him different from us?)

Reply:
How are theses guys different from us ?
They both posted on their web sites every thing they believe and set their standards for salvation and fellowship.

I have posted many things in my heart ref the same and set forth my own standards at times also. Then I became legalistic, that isif ya don't do it my way, it's wrong ! The Pharisee attitude. It appears to me what these guys are saying, If you don't met their posted standards you can't fellowship with them cause you are lost !

Iâ€™ve done the same in the past, please forgive me Lord !

Exactly!

To speak plainly... (Lazarus is dead) I was Fish 20 years ago, and I still have to battle with that attitude. That is what I meant about laying aside his interpretation of scripture (or doctrine) for a moment to reflect on what makes him different from us. To me there is a remarkable similarity in his overall outlook and my own. I had a scripture for every situation and if you didn't accept it --you were just not serious about God. I was a zealous pharisee... I could identify with the group of people who took the woman caught in adultery, demanding she be stoned, all the while quoting the Word of God... that was me... all zeal and no mercy!

Grandom, concerning being facetious... I try to be more serious with you. You inspire me, and all of us, toward a more serious demeanor... that is a good thing. As you know, I haven't been able to completely swear-off the ironic comeback yet, but there is still hope... keep praying.

James, your explanation was good, although I still don't know how anyone can get hung up on thinking that smoking a nice cigar is sin, anymore than eating a great big rib-eye steak is sin. It is a pleasure. It isn't necessary. Like a nice cup of coffee or hot chocolate, or even "fine" wine at the wedding feast in Cana, these things are not necessary for the body to function. In reality we all could live on red beans and rice three times a day for the rest of our lives if necessity and survival were the only goals.

I'm going to shock you here with this statement: Pleasures in life are not always SIN. <gasp>

Time spent with my wife for pleasure only--IS NOT SIN. Eating the cherry on top of a banana split--IS NOT SIN. By the same token, smoking a cigar--IS NOT SIN.

If you want to associate those things with sin, you first must add an ingredient or two... like immoderation, addiction, etc.. These things become sin only when they begin to rule us... not before.

Hardbones, you made the statement: "The funny thing is that he and his group in spite of his weird opinions will probably enter in. "

My first reaction to that was to acknowledge that you are right. How could anyone who held fast to the word of God (even if it was sometimes misapplied) and put it on such a pedestal, not be finally rewarded with the eternal prize? Well, after thinking about it I had to change my mind. If we hold fast to all of our doctrine and don't apply love (Fish never does) how can we say that the love of God dwells within us? I know that my answer to that question twenty years ago would have been--hey, I'm telling them the TRUTH... THAT IS LOVE. Not now.

I see in that answer the same attitude as those who gathered together for a stoning to see... and it isn't the attitude of the one who stooped down and wrote on the ground. Yes, it was an attitude that we once held, but we only need to look around at the barren, bleak, and dead landscape to see that this attitude wasn't the one Jesus wanted for us. Maybe this is the reason why it is so rare to find any in our circles who has regular fellowship with other Christians (Ron, did I ever tell you how blessed you are to be an exception to this "rule"?)

Anyway, I haven't taken any offense to any thing that has been said, and I hope you all haven't been offended by my words.

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sun, 14 Feb 2010 21:31:40 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

moulder wrote on Sun, 14 February 2010 13:44 I haven't been able to completely swear-off the ironic comeback yet, but there is still hope... keep praying.

James, your explanation was good, although I still don't know how anyone can get hung up on thinking that smoking a nice cigar is sin, anymore than eating a great big rib-eye steak is sin. It is a pleasure. It isn't necessary. Like a nice cup of coffee or hot chocolate, or even "fine" wine at the wedding feast in Cana, these things are not necessary for the body to function. In reality we all could live on red beans and rice three times a day for the rest of our lives if necessity and survival were the only goals.

Anyway, I haven't taken any offense to any thing that has been said, and I hope you all haven't been offended by my words.

I'm gonna resist a 'comeback', although I can think of a couple of pretty good ones...

And hey, while I don't smoke I don't think I'm hung up on it, but given the choice (and I do have that choice, thank God) I'll have the steak.(unless I can find some good Cajun red beans and rice with some hot sausage <grin>)

And no, your words haven't ever offended me.

BUT.....NO! I just said I was going to resist those thoughts...

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Mon, 15 Feb 2010 02:12:59 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

On Sun, 14 Feb 2010, James wrote:

>
> I'm gonna resist a 'comeback', although I can think of a couple of pretty good ones... :)
>

You are more mature than I. <grin>

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by Mark L on Mon, 15 Feb 2010 03:10:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hardbones, you made the statement: "The funny thing is that he and his group in spite of his weird opinions will probably enter in. "

My first reaction to that was to acknowledge that you are right. How could anyone who held fast to the word of God (even if it was sometimes misapplied) and put it on such a pedestal, not be finally rewarded with the eternal prize? Well, after thinking about it I had to change my mind. If we hold fast to all of our doctrine and don't apply love (Fish never does) how can we say that the love of God dwells within us? I know that my answer to that question twenty years ago would have been--hey, I'm telling them the TRUTH... THAT IS LOVE. Not now.

A good answer. Another good reply to what I said would be that we will be judged by the same standard we use to judge others.

My point was this. We can miss it on most of our doctrine. We can have legalistic phariseistic attitudes. We can have weird beliefs. We can fight tooth and nail and keep our two edged sword honed and sharp. I'd even go out on a bit of a limb here and say (looks around nervously) you can be off "to some extent" on the atonement & the doctrine of the Godhead.

All that said providing there was a initially a genuine faith placed in the real Jesus and a keeping of that faith. Like all of us who comment here do. There is a line you can't cross obviously. To me that is somewhere around the doctrine of the atonement/Godhead. Believing in the JDS Jesus doesn't get you saved either. My original point though was that there have been some xian groups down through history that had some strange beliefs and did some evil things (Calvin) yet stayed saved. I'm not saying just believe in Jesus and do what you want. I'm saying believe in Jesus and walk your life out sincerely. From my human standpoint and not having had a serious look at him it looks to me like he is doing that. Even if he is wrong on some serious issues.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 05 Mar 2010 21:31:50 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Recently the Lord gave a wonderful experience, not had before. May it be a encouragement to all. While praying recently, as standing there, A anointing came about. It was about the scriptures saying, when we pray in the Spirit sometimes we will pray mysteries. 1 Cor.14:2.

You could tell that you were speaking in tongues but that your mouth was anointed. It brought forth with it a little travail. What was wonderful is that also with it came the interpretation.

As while speaking it came out in my language.

It was about Adam and Eve. When God opened Adams side he brought forth Eve. The 2nd Adam Jesus also has his bride who has come forth from him.

So far revealed in other ways-- a virgin is a woman who has not bare children. The Hebrew concept of marriage, is you pick a bride and are considered married before wedding. she must remain pure until marriage. it is called betrothal.

That is why we are betrothed to Christ as virgins. we keep oil , Holy Spirit in our vessels lamps. In the book of revelations, we have the marriage feast. All God's bride will be there. God's poligamy is a spiritual one. He is a king and has a great concubine of spiritual women, his bride-plural.

Another thing revealed is God could create many Eves if he wanted to. He made one to show mankind they should have one. Also God wants us to see that he is concerned about his bride and will not tolerate a spirit of whoredoms. God is jealous for his bride. she is the apple of his eye.

If you study anything that relates to bride and bridegroom you will see a tremendous love for you and how God feels is more intense than a human relationship. He also reveals secrets through intimate fellowship with those who come and spend time with him. All pure love relationship is nothing compared to relationship and fellowship with God.

If you ever get started you will be like a fellow who just met that wonderful girl. you can't think about anything else.

It will be greater than that though. Col. says set your affections on things above. You talk about affection, God will leave you walking around dizzy. In a good way of course. He literally has worn me out, and also 3 writing pens. I'm ready to do it again. Halleluia.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 12 Mar 2010 20:33:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

There are times of refreshing from the Lord. It is like a man who comes home to his wife. She didn't ask for anything but he comes home one evening and surprises her.

God is the same way. He shows up unexpectedly. You never know what he is going to bring up the next time he is ready to do something. The thing is he has reason to do that. He is pleased with his bride. She is perfect in his sight, he overlooks her faults.

You see he gave her a big gift that not one of the others will ever match-- he gave her his life. Now all because of him she just keeps getting gifts out of his riches.

The power of that love drives away all demons. It is the music of a harp without strings. God is able to deliver you from all this world's evil. Have you ever heard of singing in the Spirit. Don't forget to believe for the interpretation. It is possible to do it almost everyday.

yesterday the Lord had revealed some things about the promises of God. 2Pet.1:19 see where it says a sure word of prophesy. the word sure in the grk.bebaios means stable,fast firm.

My daughter called and said there was a fellow she knew running a ad. When calling him he lied and said there was no such ad.

She had seen it herself. Thinking about it was just drop it. The words he said were ringing in the ear. The Lord reminded and showed , remember how he spoke to you to convince you that he didn't run the ad. Yes. He gave a double assurance. he said sure thing. Then it was clear-- The Lord was comforting by revealing the 2 Pet. 1:19 we have a sure word of prophesy. God purposely put the word sure in there. That is a operation of the armour of God.

All of God's promises are in that sure word. They are also yes and amen. God has always been faithful to his promises in the past. The revelation he is showing is a complicated one to reveal right now, but God is showing more now than he has before. There are more things he is even revealing about the faith message. We who teach by the Holy Spirit have to know more in order to teach without only repetition. That is a good thing but we find those who minister sometimes are not up to where they ought to be and aren't always hearing the Holy Spirit.

We all can preach, but not all are on their knees. We all need to know that the running with the horses has begun and it is a greater battle for the Lord to fight on our behalf. Said it that way because we cannot fight this enemy and win. It takes God in us to fight for us. We cannot even see our enemy, things like tongues the superweapon takes care of that.

Shall be the first one to confess that sometimes in the past have spoke in tongues but heart not in it as a serious operation of the Spirit. Travail will get rid of that problem quarantine it. It is difficult to pull out of a passive position. Beautiful Ps. 138:7-8 The Lord is doing the author and finisher thing and revives us and delivers out of trouble.

trouble also can include passive heaviness. Stir up the gift within you, he is great and mighty. The only pat on my back when off course is below the belt--get it?? God bless ye soldiers of the cross. May the Holy Spirit say to you my beloved son in whom I am well pleased in Jesus name.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 09 Apr 2010 14:52:23 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Want to praise God with testimony from last night.

Two wonderful things God did. What a anointing of his presence as going to minister. About five minutes before playing the drums the peddle was squeaking so loud it pierced your ears. Didn't want to set it aside. The Spirit of the Lord sent to go down by the rooms. In the room was a man that likes to fellowship. He just happened to have a needle oiler. He keeps it hidden in his cabinet.

The Lord knew where it was. It worked perfect.

There was a great response to the music and preaching.

On the way home while getting gas, a wasp stung in the hand, right on the thumb. It began to swell. the sting though felt, didn't hurt in which you usually shout ouch.

After prayer immediately not only did all the stinging go but the swollen was gone it looked like it never happened.

All glory to Jesus who blessed abundantly.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by GWB on Sat, 10 Apr 2010 23:38:16 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Nothing is a coincidence. Isn't He mighty in our seemingly everyday lives?

Thank you so much, Jesus, for accounting for every hair on our heads every single day.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by sparkles on Tue, 13 Apr 2010 02:21:57 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I want to thank the Lord for a healing. This past Saturday while moving somethings to a new apartment I somehow twisted my right foot and fell. I hurt my knee and ankle and foot. As long as I kept moving I was fine, but once we stopped for breakfast I could hardly walk. By the time we were done moving it was very painful to stand on my right foot. So I claimed my healing and kept walking as best I could. After praying against the pain and praying in the Spirit the pain let up a little. I thanked the Lord for the healing and shared with my friend that God was faithful and I was healed by faith. The next morning the pain was totally gone and I could walk normal on my foot like nothing ever happened.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by william on Tue, 13 Apr 2010 03:23:56 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Good testimony Sue!

This past week we also had a situation where God showed Himself in the area of healing.

My sister called us with a prayer request... she had a 1/2 dollar size lump in one of her breasts that was causing her great concern. Both of her daughters had seen and felt the lump and convinced her to make an appointment to get it checked out. They were very concerned as you can imagine. Anyway, she called and talked to my wife and asked for prayer. We prayed for her that evening and the next day the lump had all but disappeared! Her daughters were astonished! Yesterday she was busy telling everyone about receiving a miracle from God!

All praise to Jesus!

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Tue, 13 Apr 2010 17:23:14 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise Jesus for the benefits He daily provides for us, both spiritual as well as physical. May we never get to a place where we take them for granted or fail to rejoice when we hear the testimonies of our brethren.

The Word says that if all the works of Jesus were recorded, then they couldn't all be contained in a book....I'd imagine that if we listed every blessing or answer to prayer we have received through the years, we could fill up some books.(not in any way said in pride, but from a thankful humble heart, PTL)

May those who have grown skeptical concerning Jesus still working supernaturally in the lives of believers be encouraged to believe God's promises for themselves.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 19 Apr 2010 15:33:11 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Made the devil angry with the testimony was writing. So now have to re-write it.

It was a encouragement to serve the Lord. After paying $209.00 to have brakes fixed on rear axle. While serving the Lord in a town away from home, the sign said will put brake pads on if you bring them. For $27.50. Only was in that town to serve the Lord. with premium pads it cost $75.00. This was for the front axle, which was a few months after the other.

Also in the town while shopping the Lord revealed to ask for the 3 hangers needed to hang pictures with. They were pictures used to minister with. they had clips on them.

God is faithful to us when serving him.

My wife received 24 roses. The Lord prepared a few days before with something to tell her. That was, God made the flowers just for the purpose of loving us and showing his beautiful nature. that is the purpose for them.

What was not in the other testimony post which got lost, was a additional testimony of how the Lord flooded me with a tremendous group of edifying gospel songs to add to the gospel concert ministry. Some of the others singing already are producing tremendous results. God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 17 Jun 2010 14:25:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The Lord is so faithful. He does so many things for us. In reply to fasting two doors have opened for ministry. That is a double portion.

due to illness my mother in law has been staying with us at nights. The music equipment used for worship is in the house. The Lord dropped in heart that there was enough equipment to also set up a whole worship base in the studio.

to simplify that, there are 2 P.A. systems, 3 guitars, and 2 places to worship. When wanting to worship without indoor disturbance there is a secondary place to go. the outdoor place also has drums and they are not heard in the house.

Monday coming it's on the road again to minister to a new group of people. They are excited and ready. They need our prayers that the word will have free course to their hearts.

My grand daughter confirmed the special faith message again yesterday. it was a message by the Holy Spirit about faith.

It is amazing to have the Lord preach to you a whole sermon.

You didn't know a word of it and stand there listening as he tells it this is it---- a boy asked his mom for a cookie. She was at the other end of the house. She said yes, but he has to go get it. at the same time his sister walks in the room and he tells her . She says no she didn't. The boy must decide to go by his mother's word and go get the cookie. then just like a parable the Lord interprets. the Mother represents God saying yes. the sister represents the devil. the boy is all believers. he just has to act his faith and stand on his Mother's (God's word).

the reason for this was to show how simple God wants it to be. We are given exceedingly great and precious promises. they are yes and amen. Ps. 112:7 I shall not be afraid of evil tidings--- that could include the devil's no. cast down all vain imaginations and everything that exalts itself against the knowledge (word) of God. God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 17 Jun 2010 14:36:23 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Is God tangible???

1. the bible when held in my hand was written because it came out of the very mouth of almighty God.
2. The Holy Spirit who lives inside of me touches every word of God that comes out of my mouth.
3. every time a manifestation to faith in prayer comes forth. it is just like God handing it to me. that would include ,physical, mental, material, and spiritual blessings.

so yes God can be touched. in Heb. 4:15 will add that we can touch God. that is with the feelings----of our infirmities.

he is our great high priest and was tempted in every way. but he didn't give into sin. thanks be to Jesus who is so much stronger than we are and helps our weakness by giving strength and also forgiveness.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by GWB on Thu, 24 Jun 2010 02:39:54 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bro. Dave wrote:

Is God tangible?

I enjoyed your answer, Bro. Dave.

There are errors flying around about this subject. The buzz words are quantum physics. They use this subject to try and explain the hand of God concerning manifestations. The error is that they don't pray in faith to the God of Abraham, and other areas as well.

One author has a very popular booklet. Her last name is Capps. I read it, and could not quite put my finger on why I was uncomfortable with her ideas. After all, the leading charismatic teachers just love her teachings....

I just knew that Dr. Freeman would have had to have covered it somewhere. Sure enough, in Every Wind of Doctrine, it is covered under Conceptology.

This is the bases for the heresy Oprah allowed on her show some time ago. The Seat of the Soul, and others take their spin offs from these concepts. It has all the buzz words of the faith walk. Some really go off the deep-end into New Age, etc.

Again, praise Him for good teaching.

Any comments on quantum physics and faith? Do we need a new thread if so?

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Wed, 07 Jul 2010 23:00:47 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Have been thinking about the good old days. As this is written desire that it would kindle a fire in those of the same mind. What a priviledge to have been brought under the pure whole council of the word, by faithful ministry.

For me it started when a prophet came into our non-denominational church. He would go around to members and fellowship. The Holy Spirit led him to those he would share with. He gave me Dr. Hobart freeman's books and let hear some tapes.

He was terrific at exposing error and showing that some things we held to were not scriptural.

That began the process of learning to discern what was truth concerning God's word.

He especially spoke of the faith message. Having faith is what you may have but the faith message shows you how it works. Consider this and you will know that the faith message is made up of principles. A. you have to know God will answer your prayers and that it is his will. That's why Num. 23:19 is there in the bible. B. certainly you have to ask. C. if you ask you must have a reason to ask, so you say the promise in the word of God applies in that situation. Your not telling God to do something wrongly if he tells you to ask. D. like the one which tells you if you bring a umbrella you can't be expecting God to hold back the rain. you have to act like you believe something.

E. Here's the hard part. The reason why is because the devil will try to convince you to not believe in the promise. You have to hold fast to the promise till it comes to your hand.

So many people are not able to have answered prayers, they walk around saying what will be will be.

For all those who have had a hard time, there is hope. Jesus reached out his hand to Peter while he was walking on the water. God is the author and the finisher of our faith, he trains as a gentleman. to be continued.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by GWB on Thu, 08 Jul 2010 02:03:30 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bro. Dave:

"E. Here's the hard part. The reason why is because the devil will try to convince you to not believe in the promise. You have to hold fast to the promise till it comes to your hand.

So many people are not able to have answered prayers, they walk around saying what will be will be."

Gilly:

"Having done all, stand."

...and stand some more....

...and more...

...and don't look at circumstances which can be so very fickle...

...and stand, stand, stand....

He is never, never too early or too late. PTL

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Tue, 20 Jul 2010 00:04:30 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

a spiritual encounter.

a few days ago, reading the words that mentioned a token. sat there and thought about it and then remembered Jabez. He asked God for a token for good, that God would bless him and keep him from evil.

Well that encouraged to pray the same prayer--including a token of God's blessing. Yesterday while driving home, there was a rainbow. The bible calls the bow a token. It is a covenant. When getting home said to my wife, I saw a rainbow she said wow. She was at her church that morning. she is filling in for a sister by teaching a class till she returns from having her baby.

She was teaching on Noah's ark. What could be a greater token for good than that. The Lord is working to draw my wife from a church that believes in miracles, to a husband who experiences them.

In Acts 2:46 and 5:42 it mentions they are in the temple daily, and going house to house. This also is daily. It appears that they are eating together and have preaching and teaching of the word. The reason for mentioning this is the experience in Indiana when sitting at the table in different homes.

The brethren who ministered to my needs on visits were wonderful. One family would supply a sleeping quarters, which also would supply bread. Others would take turns invite to dinner.

No matter what we were doing we were fellowshiping which included the word. Some would invite others who showed delight in fellowship, and we sat long periods of time telling testimonies ,experiences, while eating. The joy of it proved it was a profitable excercise.

Being I live a Smith Wigglesworth life style, the Holy Spirit always sees to it that those who are hungry for spiritual and physical bread are surrounding me. Today while in MacDonalds the Lord moved right into a several people fellowship. That included the manager who said You can fellowship with me any day shift.

Wherever I go at any moment revcival always breaks out, this has happened almost 40 years now. Last week a gal said I like that--- she saw me at the dinner table reading the bible with my spare time, it sits right there on the table. A fellow at work never said anything till yesterday. Just casual talk. Then he broke out with the fact that he is a former Pentecostal preacher. Hadn't heard that statement in a while, he doesn't believe in the stuff they are teaching today about being saved and living any way you want to. He says a lot of people will be surprised when they find they didn't make it to heaven.

My prayers for him are that he will fulfill what he told me. He said he didn't become a preacher by his own desire but was called and learned the word. for his calling. Not my place to question him, but to pray he finds God's perfect will. May all who are in a denomination heed the call come out of her my people.

May add God sent a prophet into the church I was inhe was there to do just that --help people find truth and come out. Psalms one works, meditate on the word day and night then God will prosper your way and give you good success. God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Fri, 23 Jul 2010 20:34:33 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Here's a testimony that's a bit different...

About 7-8 months ago a couple moved into the building I live in and commenced to cause trouble right away, up all night partying and disturbing everyone else. It was during the time of year when I'm working preparing income taxes and have to get up very early, needing to get 'some' sleep at night. Well, I went to them and tried 'talking' to them, didn't do any good. I realised I had a problem that I needed help with so I prayed about it.

Soon after tax season ended I became aware that they were dealing drugs(serious drug dealers, not just selling a couple of ounces of pot to supplement their own habit...They didn't work and drove a new Corvette). Not that anywhere is immune to drugs, but I live where there is supposed to be screening of residents(a private gated community) and this became an immediate cause for concern. So I started praying daily for wisdom in how to deal with it(I informed proper authorities, managment, and those living nearby). After exhausting every avenue I could think of (without giving in to the flesh and taking care of the problem, physically) I started pressing in in prayer for The Lord to intervene...

Today the sheriff's department evicted them...the official reason was violation of their lease agreement by causing too many complaints against them...

The real reason...PRAYER

I am seriously thankful for God delivering me (and my neighbors) from that situation. No violence, gun-play, physical altercations,(all of which were solutions given unto me in the way of advise by others) Nonresistance works, because it's God's way for Christians to live, and He will honor the faith of those who seek to walk according to His Word.

A-men.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Sat, 24 Jul 2010 14:51:49 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

This is certainly a blessing to see how God moved on your behalf. Your time of testing with them is over and sounds like you were victorious. Sometimes the flesh would like to deal with things in the flesh, but ultimately God's way is always the best. I have found that when looking back on a trial the Lord was there knowing just what I needed to help me see things in my life that needed to be changed or died to.

I had a very Godly friend who would always encourage me to get the victory and overcome the first time so I wouldn't need to keep going around that mountain, but rather let God do the work in me so I could be victorious in Christ. I pray the Lord give you nice neighbors who are respectful of others and maybe even christians.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by Mark L on Sat, 24 Jul 2010 15:41:46 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thats very encouraging. The Lord has been impressing me to pray more. I think I will press in.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 26 Jul 2010 14:37:07 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The boss called on the phone

It is a desire here to minister to you and not just give a praise report. This is a key principle learned by the Holy Spirit, you cannot question a testimony so much if it reveals the glory to God other than saying the Lord pleased me through a manifestation. Do you see what is said here???

So follow this pattern--- the boss calls on your day off which is a sunday. The challenge will be to say or think the wrong things. That's when you apply the crucify the self principle. The more you grow the less you have to crucify.

Here is how to do it best--- In the mind-- this is a opportunity to serve my boss, love him and be a help in his time of need. This should produce friendship and favor. In my case several times he wanted to say thanks for coming in to help me. He wanted to show he meant it.

When at work, 2 opportunities came about to share Jesus. They were at the right time, where it is permissible.

When getting home there was a delicious meal waiting. In the mind there was the satisfaction of knowing God prospered with a extra days pay-- needed. The air conditioner which was given a few years ago has been down a few days , but my mother in law has a unit in a bedroom that is never used. It runs good and that saved a $100.00 dollars.

The Lord caused me to see something on the way home from work so he could impress concerning a double portion. When worshipping the Lord a special anointing came and a series of songs came that were known. there were 2 songs in the series needed and the Lord gave them. That was the double portion. The presence of God was very strong on those.

God has appointed and predestinated all events to bring him glory, we just have to apply those spiritual principles which he has given us. Please understand I don't use the corrective technique when telling people to do something. That can mislead to thoughts in minds of people that your legalistic.

example--- you shouldn't put the icing on the cake till you take the cake from the oven. that may sound corrective, in Greek they say imperitive (command) but it is not, it is instructive and winds up being Greek indicative (fact) to be a good leader you have to be gentle with people and realise where you have come from by grace. The whole Greek thing was just a fun way of getting accross a point.

It is a real priviledge to be around God's real sheep and they are very much appreciated. The very Christ that I love dearly lives inside their very being.He and they are precious. the union with Christ makes them unseperable-- the only difference is he gets all the glory. may his grace pour down like rain on them right now in Jesus name.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by GWB on Tue, 27 Jul 2010 14:40:40 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Bro. Dave, I enjoyed your testimony about dying out to self and ministering to your boss. May God give us all the grace to do so with people in this world. I, myself, am trying to deal with that principle daily.

Also, I appreciate your testimonies about how He supplies your needs. He is so faithful and I, too, am always blessed as to His many "coincidences" that happen in our lives.

I have been wondering about your music. Feel free to post your songs as He reveals them to you. I think it would be a huge blessings for all to hear them.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by grandom on Sun, 29 Aug 2010 14:44:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

REFLECTION AND THANKSGIVING.

I have recently surpassed 70 years on my journey through this foreign land on my way to my heavenly home to be with the master. I have been reflecting on just my physical blessings.

How many times does a heart beat in 70 plus years. Innumerable to me and yet The Lord has blessed every beat and for that I thank Him.

I just took another breath. How many breaths did He allow in 70 plus years. In numberable and for that I thank him.

He has blessed me with eye sight to admire the beauty of His creation. I guess that's why I love flowers so much. For that I thank Him.

He blessed me with the ability to taste and to eat and for that I thank Him.

He blessed me with hearing so that I can hear the birds singing praises to Him and to enjoy worship and praise. For this I thank Him.

All these blessings that are so easy to take for granted. I praise and thank The Lord that He has blessed me all these years. He is faithful to His children.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by sparkles on Sun, 29 Aug 2010 16:08:05 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I rejoice with you Grandom! Thanks for sharing your blessings, because so many are not thankful for the little things they have, nor for the big things.

Such as water to drink, food at the grocery store, gas for our cars, freedom(at least at this point), a Bible to read, and the schools that we went to that taught us to read. The list is unending of all the blessings we have.

May the Lord bless you abundantly in the coming year, and thank you for sharing on this site, I have been extremely blessed by all the wisdom you have given us.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Sun, 29 Aug 2010 18:14:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thank you Sage. You have always been an encouragement to me and may God bless you abundantly as well

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by GWB on Sun, 29 Aug 2010 23:33:43 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I am thankful for you and your reaching 70 as well.

Thanks for being there with wisdom that living to 70 brings.

What you share is usually short, sweet, and to the point. It always tickles me to see just how short you can keep it which a good example for me, too.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Mon, 30 Aug 2010 13:20:39 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Thank you Gwb.

Last night and this morning this song has been going through my mind and spirit so I thought I would share it.

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my father!
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not:
As thou hast been Thou forever wilt be.

Chorus

Great is Thy faithfulness,
Great is Thy faithfulness,
Morning by morning new mercies I see:
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!
Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Chorus

Great is Thy faithfulness,
Great is Thy faithfulness,
Morning by morning new mercies I see:
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!
Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth.
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide,
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

Chorus

Great is Thy faithfulness,
Great is Thy faithfulness,
Morning by morning new mercies I see:

All I have needed Thy hand hath provided
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Oh Lord. Thank you for your faithfulness.
Be Blessed

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Tue, 31 Aug 2010 00:23:38 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Congrats brother, you don't look a day over 69...

Seriously, we do have so much to be thankful for, and one of the things I'm thankful for is having you as a brother in The Lord. May He continue to bless you as you grow in wisdom and understanding of Him.

I find it interesting how The Holy Spirit is putting these songs in our hearts lately from the old hymn books...I used to not care too much for them; now they minister to my spirit as I go through the day.

Yep! Great IS His faithfulness...

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Thu, 09 Sep 2010 16:51:34 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I thank God for David Wilkersons devotional for today.

Quote "Anyone can keep his joy when he's riding high in the Holy Ghost, not being tried or tempted. But God wants us to keep ourselves in his love at all timesâ€”especially in our temptations."

Not many are aware of the trial I have been going through these last few months and I wont expound on it now. If we would keep the word in our heart (remember) count it all joy etc. God loves us with an everlasting love and because He loves us He allows trials.

We are never as close to Him as when we are weak and broken. Thought out history humans seem to always move away from God in the good times.

Thank you Lord for your love.

By His stripes I am healed.

Be blessed

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 19 Sep 2010 12:21:09 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

oppression must cease.

a conflict in the work place was developing. a lady was not doing her work and was oppressing our particular work team.

From my part, had even done her a great favor by sacrifice to treat her kindly anyway. She in return would include all of the team in spite of kindnesses.

The evening before prophetic words came. the first was a scripture. Prov. 13:23 in the JFB, the commentary put in my words reveals, the laboring poor,---not poor in a spiritual sense but materially. are still more prosperous than those who are crafty and wicked and have their way of sleeping in the bathroom instead of doing their labor.
those were my comments out of JFB"S comments.

The second prophetic was when doing a study in the word, when all of a sudden these words were written.
Those who play--will like Haman have to ---pay.

The Lord knew that we were experiencing a situation where the lady would lie to the boss and say bad things about us as she was trying to manipulate us into doing her work also.

The next day report came the big boss fired her. She was even given opportunity to here the word. It is sad that people are captive to things. That doesn't mean we can't try to help them. Out of all that the Lord has comforted by my receiving some extra hours, being my job is a part timer. also the favor given her came back as a better situation for me. The boss gave a new special equipment to us for a better work experience. God is in control of things and is worthy to be praised.

remember suffer and cross was for the purpose of delivering from loss. think about it.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by james on Sun, 26 Sep 2010 15:21:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Matthew 5:45

"...for He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust."

I'm thankful today for the rain we're getting, most of Alabama has been under drought conditions for some time.

I pray I never get to the place where I take God's blessings for granted.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Thu, 30 Sep 2010 14:04:55 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

When occult oppression comes my way, it has the power to make me pray.

I want to praise God for his Holy Spirit. The occult I'm referring to is from people who are not saved or delivered. It is likely that others are not sure just how to handle that kind of situation.

One of the most joyful things to know is we can't handle that. God knew we couldn't, that's why he has given us Spiritual things to deal with Spiritual battles. Times of sifting are already dealt with by our Father. He wants to know something about us. He already does but actions bring forth some kind of fruit.

He is so pleased that when we go through these things we make the choice that would please him. Instead of being in a garden eating the wrong fruit, now we choose to bring forth the right fruit. Wisdom is called a tree of life. If we are not willing to be put on a cross daily we will actually be walking in spiritual death.

True worship is out of knowing that somehow the father is pleased with our fruit and sacrifice. All fruit is born out of the life of the Spirit, not the works of the flesh. The Lord will prosper and bless even when the enemy says no so we must remember it's not a matter of circumstances, only the sufficiency of God's grace.

In other words who can hinder or stop a all powerful, sovereign God. I praise him that at a time when all seems to be falling apart, it really isn't. What is happening is that all the things around are not as real as the spiritual realities that only the word of God can create.

example--- you claim a promise. God may give you something far above that is better than your own choice. He will give what you ask but even better. proof of this is that he can even give a double portion. The true issue is a commitment of true love and fellowship with the father. If we ask he will bring us to a place of pleasing. we want to be confident that he is pleased with us. We cannot do that in the flesh. start by entering his presence through praise and worship and a humbling of oneself. truly he has come forth to give victory today for me in many ways. for you to confession.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 31 Oct 2010 10:58:51 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Today praise God for abundant life. Jn.10:28 eternal life.

2 passages are on my heart. the first is Prov. 8:36 all they that hate me love death says a lot. What a terrible way to express this hate. To love death--- skull and bones---Dracula and sucking blood till the victim dies--- ghosts ---graveyards---pirates who kill with the sword-- and much more.

The poor innocent children, they don't know any better. denominational churches continue to encourage it. It all is a laugh for the devil as he says--please love death.

The second is in Rom. 8:6 To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. To follow the ways of the world is carnal. 1Jn. 2:15 says love not the world neither the things in the world.

For a moment this all doesn't seem encouraging. We have to see both sides to understand that God is reaching out to tell us something. look at Jn. 10:10 the last part of the verse show us we can have life and have it more abundantly.

If you are in the eternal life covenant which Jesus purchased with his blood, then you are assured you will have abundant life. some times circumstances may tell you differently. life includes every provision. Then the Lord adds abundantly. Once we get focused on Jesus and his life in us we will see in our inner spirit that he lives and dwells there. His kingdom is within us.

In the past years through much research, by taking Theology and making it apply to life, tremendous revelations have come to understand how to make it apply to life. Thereby it is more than just a secular teaching but a living instrument to abundant life. truly in him we live and move and have our being. Acts 17:27-28 it is a great praise song also God bless.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by JWBTI on Tue, 09 Nov 2010 01:05:52 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise be to Jesus !

This past Saturday the pastor of a small church here in Van Wert was called to the bed Side of a 25 year old stroke victim. The family wanted the pastor to administer last rites. He was in a deep coma and the doctors gave him no hope !

When he walked into the waiting room he told the family, he couldn't do that !(give last rites)
Why ?
Because he had heard the testimony 2 weeks ago, of how had God delivered my grand daughter Diamond from death.

Whos Report will you Believe ? God or the doctor !

He choose to believe Gods report. The pastor then laid hand on the man and left.
No responses from the victim.

Sunday morning during worship the pastor was moved to do one more thing. He asked the mans sister to come and be anointed with oil on his behalf and asked all to agree For healing for Jeff.
So Be it !

After being anointed with oil, the sister went to the hospital and rubbed her oily forehead
On his forehead and with in a short time he started moving around.
Today he opened his eyes and started moving his hands and lips starting to communicate
With those around him. Praise Jesus !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The doctors can't understand why this is happening. He supposed to die !

Whos report will you Believe ?

I will believe the Report of the Lord !

Praise Be to Jesus !!!!!!!

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by william on Tue, 09 Nov 2010 04:55:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Praise Jesus! It is such a blessing to see Him move on the behalf of those who simply step out in faith!!

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by grandom on Tue, 09 Nov 2010 10:17:40 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Whoa. Wait. Stop the presses.

Are you telling us because you attended a less then perfect church (there are no perfect ones you know)and the pastor probably doesnt have the light we have, and you participated in body ministry by giving your testimony that a young man is alive today? Is that what your saying?

Praise the Lord forever more.

Dick

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Tue, 09 Nov 2010 14:04:57 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Would like to gently say that healing is walking in perfection.

Those who trust in the world are making two mistakes. First they are putting themselves in danger by trusting man's means of healing. Also they are not in obedience to the requirements of righteousness God has laid down in his word.

The bottom line is that if we are not meeting conditions of faith God is not obligated to respond. If there is a manifestation of faith there will also be a revelation to go on to maturity.

In Eph. 4:11 the 5-fold ministry is for the perfecting of the saints. That means they haven't arrived at the full requirements the Lord has set. The word let us go on to perfection would include those who step out in faith often so as to press on to perfection.

mercy is a perfection of God also grace and all the rest. We may come short of it but we pay a high price when not obedient.

Grace was when Abraham was to have a son by Sarah. He went to Hagar. Ishmael was not to good of a deal, but God gave grace to Abraham and he did have Isaac.

Always remember that what we do and how we do it results in great rewards. There are many churches that are very prosperous, and some ministers were caught in the act of adultery. Their prosperity is no proof of their faith. Through that we see that there may be manifestations but they may not be of God. Through a perfect walk in uprightness, people will not bring reproach on the word by saying that couldn't be of God for those people live worldly or sinful.

responsibility is included in our walk so God will get all the glory.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Fri, 12 Nov 2010 02:20:49 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Not taking prayers for granted

Try to always give a testimony report to you all when things happen as a result. The performance today was tremendous. Gave the testimony about the Ohio fellow coming out of the comma. A lady returned testimony of another similar time when someone was anointed with oil and healed.

People came after and before the gospel singing and it was full of things pertaining to gifts of the Spirit. Got to use for the first time the new gift God has given me. It is a new way of singing. One comment came that my singing and guitar playing was so good didn't need all the other stuff. I will pray about that. God's presence was so strong it put the fear of God on me. It came to me that it is okay the Lord is just making me skilful and powerful. He didn't want me to be uncomfortable.

He is good and you can tell the difference when under the anointing that you are doing better than you would on your own. To God be all the glory. thanks

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 21 Nov 2010 13:27:24 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Someone special in my life.

Reflecting on the past, after years of hearing the messages of healing, Being to some the healing message was sort of a warfare message. It was obvious there were more than just a few. We were learning that medical science is not of God but of the d----. Honestly the world is full of the d----. It is easy to get side tracked when your in a battle with him.

In guessing, after being a medical professional also, it's is easy to have the wrong feelings toward people who don't believe in healing, especially Drs.

God has rewarded the past few years with many medical science individuals in my life. The main reason being they need to know the truth. That is in love.

The man in which has been brought my way is special. He is a 30 year Dr. who is retired. He is a preacher's son. He has said personally that he is amazed at the testimonies shared with him. They are just a few about supply needs from the Lord. He is real excited when I give him scriptures to read at home. He makes a point to let me know he reads them.

He speaks well of his dad, he says my dad lived it. His dad by the way also conducted feet washing at their love feasts. The communion also. He was excited telling that, he said it really brings the brethren together in a bond.

It is obvious that many people are born again-- they just need to know more about Jesus. That was where I was at when a prophet from faith assembly came and showed unto me the more excellent way. A good example of a person in that life would be in Acts 19. They were saved but didn't know that their was such a thing as receiving the Holy Spirit since they beleaved. May the Lord send our way predestined souls to tell his good news amen.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 18 Dec 2010 14:52:40 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Just wanted to praise the Lord for the way the Lord used HEF to give understanding about the disciplined life. Things like a hard word, or having to choose what side of the fence you will walk on. no compromising the word,

Many had written the same who were in the walk of faith. He was a true example of a 5-fold minister in Eph.4: to bring the saints to perfection.

unfortunately a man may make human mistakes. He certainly works hard to be a blessing and if he makes a mistake people will talk about that and forget the good he has done. Don't hear people talking much about Moses not going into Canaan, but most of the time it's about delivering People out of Egypt.

Some people who may have not been under the word very long may have a tendency to speak disagreeingly about a minister.

There is no option concerning truth, it is no choice , we must agree with truth. even sometimes people in the world teach us things that are good. If they are wrong we discern that and reject it. But it is no option concerning any truth in the word.

It is of utmost importance that we crucify our opinion and seek the Holy Spirit for truth. We have no choice in what we think. The mind is not able to always make accurate judgements.

We cannot even hear a minister and say I agree or disagree, we must be in the word and trust the Holy Spirit for his yes and amen.

One thing is for sure we are blessed to have those who keep us on the narrow path and a disciplined walk so we can please the Lord in our walk. We must give account for our walk. We must seek our salvation with fear and trembling, most of all we must stay humble and be ready to make any adjustments if need be.

thank you Holy Spirit for being our great teacher who confirms the word of truth.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 31 Jan 2011 19:49:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I praise God for his intervention in saving my wife and grand daughter from a car accident last week.

the car she was driving to go to church konked out in the high speed highway. A car almost wrecked when running off the road to avoid hitting her. Many people stopped to help her. She said the Lord was good to her and Emma.

The hill to her left is a blind spot so cars cannot see till right up on you. God can see over all hills and keep us safe amen.

Another thing going on is my son's wife has a brother who is just had a baby. it came prematurely. There were many problems that I will not confess but the many prayers that went up are a sure sign concerning the child's progress. I praise God for the ability to pray in tongues. That way God prays perfect prayers through the instrument.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by David Coleman on Sun, 20 Mar 2011 10:39:33 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

A couple days ago was going through some things which weakened the body. The thought came don't feel like praising today in music studio. That was one of those thoughts you have to throw out. After saying will praise God today, a instant anointing of strength came. Made one feel like nothing was happening in the bad feeling realm.

After prepared instruments a idea came---why don't you set up all the music needed to create a full music concert. It lined up perfectly. Not just a list of songs but songs in proper order. Here's the order---intense---gentle worship---then intense again.

That doesn't rule out the leading of the Spirit, but he will adjust as he would like in any situation. That is simular to having a few messages and the Lord may say don't preach this one but another one that you have. Know anyone who preaches after that pattern?

Out of that praise and worship came the message from Genesis ch.2. cover that in another post.

Subject: Re: I praise God for--
Posted by GWB on Mon, 18 Apr 2011 01:48:18 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Brother Ken Neilson is breathing on his own with the help of the ventilator for rest. GI functions are doing great...very important!

Here is the site for updates:

<http://www.caringbridge.org/visit/kenneilson>

Subject: Re: I praise God for--

Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 18 Apr 2011 11:26:56 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

That's amazing Neil is doing better. Glory to God.

To add more praise to God --- Frank was laying there dying and the Dr. says there's no more we can do. Well Frank was there and told them he refused any more medicine. To them that was okay. They were about to stop his pacemaker until they found all of a sudden someone said no don't do that. Yesterday he went home and is doing much better. He recognises people. We continue to pray for full progress, thank you Jesus.
