I have now joined the 21st century and have my own substack newsletter. So I took another big step and posted some material on my youtube page. I had to create one to put up that song a few weeks ago Same name as the substack.

Many yrs ago I had the opportunity to share a couple of messages to a small group in my home and recorded them. They are the only ones I have recorded and the quality is not overly good. At one point I had to stop and go close the window as my neighbor started cutting his grass.

There were 2 messages and the subject was Apostles and Prophets. What are they and how will we recognize them. Like Bro Paul I may be rude in speech but not in knowledge. I'm still preparing for the ministry God has for me but occasionally he gives me something to say. So now that I have joined the 21st century I am going to say it.

So if you're interested here it is
