I wasn't sure where to put this so here it is. An opinion piece by Conrad Black in one of our national dailies here in Canada. Not sure if you know who he is. There is both good and bad to say about him. I read his columns as he is a very cogent observer of the political and economic times. He is also married to someone whose columns I have read for the last 40 yrs and mostly agree with her opinions. They are also both strong supporters of Israel.

I guess I'm posting it as there has just been an avalanche of hate and misinformation put out about Trump for the last 4 yrs. It's just been overwhelming. Look at the recent news about Biden's son Hunter.

I don't know if the election was stolen or not but I do think Trump should gracefully concede. Of course, that is probably not in his nature.

The column is behind a paywall but you should be able to read it. If not just hit "save as" to your desktop and it will copy it that way.
