Can anyone give me directions to FA from the intersection of IN-13 and E 500 N? I'm trying to find the building on Google Earth. I assume the building is still there? I can find E Backwater Rd. but I haven't even seen the building in over 20 years. Thanks for any help.

I think I finally found it... it took me a while to remember the route we took.

I'll put the google road map in the library which will show you where it is (X marks the spot), from that you should be able to go to google maps, switch to satellite mode and see the building.

I'm 99% sure that this is it...

Blessings,
William

Is the building still there? I'm having trouble recognizing it.
