Just wanted to let everyone know that I've been very busy these last few weeks but I have been reading all of the messages.

Remember, if no one responds to a message it doesn't mean your efforts have been in vain, God's Word never fails to accomplish its purpose! (Is 55:11)

Blessings,
William

Thanks brother,

Hopefully most of us don't need our hands held anymore, but it's always encouraging to be reminded that we aren't alone and others are being blessed, which in turn blesses us. God is faithful, and He's teaching us to be.

God Bless,

james
