

---

Subject: The difference between the positive.

Posted by David Coleman on Wed, 11 Oct 2023 02:23:43 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

There are some who will say positive statements that are not wrong in themselves. Example: You are going to have victory in your life very soon. or God is going to do great things for you in the coming days. They may say this is for some certain person out there listening to me. God is going to prosper you etc. but who is to know who that person is ?

Any believer in God's word, can by faith confess the promises of God's word and see them manifest in God's timing. my experience.

While out on my lawn mower which is loud when the blades are engaged, the anointing came upon me in a special way. To hear I was singing the promises of God in a opera way. (loud singing) it was so joyful. One after another they came out without any difficulty. it was like I was prophesying. Found out later I was. God was preparing me for the word of God that evening.

Ps. 47:1 part B. shout unto God with the voice of triumph. v.6 sing praises 4 times then God is our king. v.9 the God of Abraham. In Gal. 3:29 if you be Christ's then are you Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.

By the Spirit you will see in Ps. 47:1-9 that this blessing can be for you also. So--- shout God's promises with triumph. God who is our king wants to give us a inheritance as heirs with Christ. His words of promises are enough positive to change the future for the better. He has taken on himself Abraham's seed --us.

Gal. 3:14 Gentiles who make up the church (any time) can receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. seed of Christ is every born again believer they are Christ seed.

---