

---

Subject: great example of loving in the bible

Posted by David Coleman on Tue, 05 Sep 2023 15:12:59 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

In Ex. 32:32 Moses is willing to be blotted out of the book of the living. in v.33 God tells Moses , only those who have sinned will be blotted out.

Jesus was crucified as a sinner--They said he blasphemed and said he is the son of God. His resurrection proved that he was accepted by God and raised from the dead. In the eyes of the Jews he would be blotted out of God's book. He was not a sinner therefore he was raised from the dead.

Are there any ministers who are willing to have a heart like that. Moses couldn't forgive sins, but he was willing to lay down his life for the sheep. look at Num. 12:11. Aaron says lay not this sin upon us, whereby we have done the foolishness (sin). This is where the two had sinned by the act.

Extra I like this. God loves all people no matter what color or race. Num. 12:1.

Num. 12:8 In this hour, I find God is revealing the understanding of his word clearly though it is written at times in hidden speeches. This is given by the Holy Spirit. Jn. 14:26.

Look at Col. 2:12-15 1. God raised Jesus from the dead v.12. 2. gave forgiveness for sins v.13 3. blotted out the handwriting of ordinances (law) that was against us. 4. conquered principalities and powers and triumphed over them.

We know that it wasn't a piece of paper from a book nailed to the cross. Just like we know that sin was not put on Jesus. That sin and trespass were forgiven by his taking our punishment. Now that he lives we will know we are forgiven and our names in the Lamb's book of life. Rev. 21:27--22:19. praise you oh sinless Lamb.

---