
Subject: Sukkot in Israel

Posted by Mark L on Thu, 17 Oct 2019 17:24:27 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We're going next year. The ICEJ feast. They have it every year. 7-8000 people from all over the world go to the conference and often the Prime Minister addresses the meeting. The Jerusalem march is in the Israeli news today. We were going to go over for the feast this year but it didn't work out. So next year for sure.

<https://www.timesofisrael.com/participants-from-dozens-of-countries-descend-on-jerusalem-for-64th-sukkot-march/>

<https://feast.icej.org/>

Subject: Re: Sukkot in Israel

Posted by william on Sun, 11 Oct 2020 01:17:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Are you still going to be able to make it to this event? If so, you know we'll need a complete update!

Blessings,
William

Subject: Re: Sukkot in Israel

Posted by william on Sun, 11 Oct 2020 03:02:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I guess it's too late, I'm way behind the times!

Subject: Re: Sukkot in Israel

Posted by Mark L on Sun, 11 Oct 2020 22:51:15 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We've been wanting to go for years so planned on it for this year and then . . .

Oh Well! Apparently they had a virtual conference. Not sure how that turned out.
