Friday Oct 13,2017 started off as a normal business day at Bailey Trucking. I arrived and started answering phones at 6am. Just before 7am I headed to the media room to copy some papers, as I entered the room Christy, a co worker entered from another door with a hand full of stone tickets to copy. I yielded to her, she copied her papers and headed back to her office in the back part of the building, I copied my papers and returned to my desk. Just then my intercom came on, another co worker heard a noise In Christys room and said that Christy had slid out of her chair onto the floor and was not breathing. I yelled at Tim our dispatcher, he came started CPR as I called 911.

EMTs an squads started arriving (sw fire station was only 1 mile from our shop) Christy's husband was called in from out back. Bailey trucking shut down and went into prayer mode, the girls in the office and all the drivers waiting to be dispatched were on their knees praying. Her husband and I were at her feet praying,

The EMTs took over the CPR that Tim had started, she had no heart beat, no breath, her body was not responding to any thing, she was dead !

15- 20 minutes went by, the EMTs doing all they could, then the Advance Life Support unit arrived and took over. The Fire Chief looked at me and shook his head as to say, there's no hope she's gone ! After almost an hour of CPR they loaded her up and headed for Lutheran hospital and the Fire Chief shook his head again, she's gone.

As the ALS unit pulled out of the driveway, a sheriff's deputy came in and said the coroner was on the way and he needed to secure the room ! No one else in the building knew this. I told everyone to keep praying and not to give up !!!! Ten minutes later we got News ! They got a heart beat as they arrived at the ER !!!!!!!!!!!

She had be dead for over an hour, they admitted her to ICU

They called off the coroner and the deputy left. 18 hours later around 2am Saturday morning she set up in bed wondering, Why Am I here ?

Sunday she was receiving visitors as if nothing had happened.

The reason that I was in the media room, was I had two pages of scriptures to give Christy that stated that God wanted her well !!!!!!!

I gave her that list when she returned to work.

This was one of those scriptures !

The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

John 10:10 NKJV

The Thief came and took her life,
Then Jesus came and gave life back to her !!
Praise be to Jesus !!!
To Him be Glory and Honor and Praise !
