A hard lesson to learn. fight the good fight of faith. All the good one can do while fighting with the devil, will be contested. In a person's own strength or luck, they may succeed but big battles will require faith. Compromise with the devil and he will pretend to be your friend but later you will pay big time.

I am referring to America. Who would have ever thought that all the nations and leaders right here on our own soil were ripping us tax payers off. Get on social security and see how you will be double taxed. you paid tax on your social security and now pay tax when you get it now. Ask Trump. The devil has working full time to put you in poverty. Many true Christians are the elderly.

How to win. true Christians claim Phil. 4:18-19. Our God supplies (all) our needs from his riches in glory (now). watch that confession (I don't have it.) faith has it. I say it right now out of a personal relationship with God. ( I love you Jesus). Thank you for your beautiful face looking on me.
