We go (most of the time) to a large local Pentecostal church. The worship isn't too bad and we can be with fellow believers. We don't get involved outside of the Sunday meeting though. I just felt the Lord wanted me to be somewhere. It's also big enough for us to get lost in. We don't get asked any questions. We can just show up and worship. Then we get CD's from another bro. I have been holding fast to see God do something here for the faith message for a long time.

Dittos to Hardbones (except ours isn't Pentecostal with a large "P" but it is "pentecostal"â€¦ at least I think! <grin>).

Blessings,
