From the highways and the hedges. Jesus said that in Luke 14. You know who comes out of the hedges. The kind ordinary decent folks like us don't want to associate with.

I was reading a news site and saw an article about this guy. They were making fun of him of course. I watched the video on the bottom and apparently he's truly saved. I have long been of the opinion that when we get over the other side we'll be surprised to see a lot of people there we really don't approve of.

In Rev. 18/4 we see the H.S. calling "his people" out of wicked Babylon of all places. Just prior to its destruction. What on earth are they doing there!

Anyway not sure why I posted this. I guess I just thought it was interesting.

I have the same opinion about "christian" heavy metal that I'm sure all of you do but I don't have to fellowship with him or listen to his music. I just found it interesting. In my opinion he is saved. Anyway I looked him up on Wiki which as you all would agree is (next to the bible) the bottom line on everything.

At the same time, Mustaine's personal life once again underwent change. It was during this period that Mustaine became a Christian. He expressed his intent to withdraw from a show in Greece that had Rotting Christ and Dissection opening for Megadeth.[11][12] Mustaine told The Daily Times during a recent interview, his own world was already shattered, and becoming a Christian was the one way he's found to put the pieces back together. "I went back to being a Jehovah's Witness, but I wasn't happy with that." He later said in an interview, "Looking up at the cross, I said six simple words, 'What have I got to lose?' Afterwards my whole life has changed. It's been hard, but I wouldn't change it for anything. Rather go my whole life believing that there is a God and find out there isn't than live my whole life thinking there isn't a God and then find out, when I die, that there is." [13] Mustaine also considers his talent a gift from God. "To be the No. 1 rated guitar player in the world is a gift from God and I'm stoked about it, but I think Christ is better than I am, anyway," he said. "Either way, I don't put too much earthly merit on it."[13]

Mark,

Praise the Lord for the new job !

It's good to be home every night !

The Lord brought me off the road 18 years ago and has Blessed us abundantly in every way !

Praise Jesus !

Thanks for the kind words Ron. My wife doesn't know what to do with me now. Home all the time. One big benefit is I took my 4 yr old granddaughter out for the lunch the other day. That was fun.

Mark,

Another benefit to being home is: that it will give your wife an opportunity to grow
In Grace as she overcomes you being there all the time

Re: Compel them to come in

I was a dirt bag before Salvation, but some one compelled me to come in!

Praise Jesus, I am so Thankful thy did !

It's so easy to witness to the pretty people, but it's the down and out type and the rockers that really need our love and care and the Hope that we have in Jesus Christ.

Look at the rag-tag-bunch that Jesus chose to be His disciples !

They weren't the most desirable people in the community, neither was I !

Oh Lord, let us see others as you saw us before Salvation!. In Need of a Savior !

Help us to compel others to come in !
