I don't know how true this is but in any case its worth a good laugh.

Egypt Calls for Reparations - from Biblical Times
March 31, 2014

Middle-Eastern countries have a tendency to hold a grudge against Israel, whether over Israel winning the 1967 war or daring to establish independence in 1948. But, as of earlier this month, an Egyptian columnist has called for Israel to pay Cairo reparations - and this time, it's Biblical. "We want compensation for the Ten Plagues that were inflicted upon us as a result of the curses that the Jews' ancient forefathers cast upon our ancient forefathers, who did not deserve to pay for the mistake that Egypt's ruler at the time, Pharaoh as the Torah calls him, committed," Ahmad Al-Gamal, a writer for the Al-Yawm Al-Sabi daily.

Wasn't sure where to put this.

It isn't worth a good laugh but it is interesting. I find science very interesting. All the new discoveries. As I have said before I think there is a big break through coming which will open the door to the mark of the beast among other things. In any case this is interesting

But try to think of it this way: This is one of the basic weapons in your body's protective arsenal. This stuff is keeping you healthy.

Sorry couldn't resist. I saw it on the same page as the guy who died.
