This is a highly interesting documentary about the Exodus. Conventional wisdom has it the Exodus occurred in the time of Ramses which is a time I disagree with. If it shifts back to about 1450 BC everything lines up. The filmmaker shows this and shows why. I find stuff like this highly interesting. I'm going with another bro to Egypt Jordan and Israel next month. Following the path of the exodus. Although we're going around the Red Sea not through it. Should be interesting. Anyway I like the video.
