Some believe that the 10 lost tribes of Israel are 10 distinct groups that have been found recently and will return to Israel according to Revelation. Others believe they have assimilated into the world's population and cannot be found. I do not have a view, just throwing it out there and wondering what is valid and scriptural.

I am guessing popular culture. I see both of these lines of thought online and in the mail and it made me wonder what was up with all of it.

In going through old outlines today, I saw where it was taught at FA; what wasn't! However, I do not remember anything about this subject. That week I must have been having a baby or something.

Hope that info helps to clarify my question.

We move tomorrow. See you guys in a few days.

Blessings, Gillyann

That's a good reply Hombre. Notion says it all.

There are also very good notes in Every Wind of Doctrine on this subject pg 66 on the study on Anglo-Israelism

I took it off because I got discouraged and thought I was shooting my mouth off too much again

I agree with your comments. I thought the Taliban issue was interesting because of their prominence in the news these days. Every now and then you hear about another group with Jewish heritage. It's always interesting to me. There was a chinese group a few yrs ago with ancient jewish practices still considered themselves jewish- chinese looking- very ancient heritage. They wanted to return to Israel(after 3000 yrs or so) Neither the Israeli or chinese gov't were interested. I think the Israeli's just didn't want the bother.

Getting too far out with speculation about endtimes is never very profitable. Although always interesting

Having said that I just had a thought. As I have said on other posts I think God's two witnessess are going to do more than call down fire from heaven etc. I think they will set up the tribal divisions set the priesthood in order temple worship etc It just occoured to me they may call and annoint the 144000 jewish evangelists in Rev 7 as well. Ah just a thought.

GWB writes:

I have gone back and read this section in EWofDoctrine. It is very good, and nothing at all what most are now saying "out there."

Dr. Freeman lays out, in great detail, how the tribes were never lost at all! This really shoots a hole in the false doctrines that many Messianic movements are now taking.

Dr. Freeman stated that all 12 tribes sacrificed after returning from Babylon. It is all very interesting and I was so blessed to FINALLY get it straightened out after listening to so many talk about this subject.

Hello,

The Ten Lost Tribes of Israel refers to the tribes of ancient Israel that formed the Kingdom of Israel and disappeared from the Biblical account after the kingdom was destroyed in about 720 BCE by ancient Assyria.[1] Many groups have traditions concerning the continued hidden existence or future public return of these tribes.

This is a subject based upon written religious tradition and partially upon speculation. There is a vast amount of literature on the Lost Tribes and no specific source can be relied upon for a complete answer....

Thanks for your response. It is always good to hear different opinions and what others are learning about the Word.

From my understanding of these teachings from FA, there has always been a remnant of all twelve tribes present in the land of Israel itself.

Yes, they were scattered in part and God is bringing those parts back to Israel.

I believe that I have a reliable source for what I believe on this subject. I am open to others opinions, but for me, Dr. Freeman's teachings have always allowed me to stay on track of the true Word of God.

e. Restore King and land.

f. Zek. 14 Promises restoration of the land.

*In the Ezekiel Series, HEF states that in 70 AD, the Romans came, destroyed the second temple, and at that time, many Jewish people disbursed throughout the world. There are remnants of every tribe in Israel today. GWB

This is all I am going to outline in exposing the seven deceptions. The Names of God are covered under the topic Bible Issues started by grandom.

These notes are a work in progress concerning the seven areas of deception. These are my personal notes taken from the teaching tapes of Dr. Freeman. People are more than welcome to challenge, or help with, my interpretation of the teachings. These outlines do not replace listening to the teachings yourself. There are just too many gems in the teachings to include on an outline. I would be thrilled to have people listening to these teachings again and discuss them.

Many people are getting caught up in Replacement Theology; the theme of this thread. Most believe there was not a remnant left in Israel and that they were all disbursed throughout the world. Although some Christians believe that they are now Israel and that God has rejected the Jew, the Jewish people believe differently.

This was taken from the Daily Prayer Book written by Chief Rabbi Joseph H. Hertz. Jewish people give this book upon Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The scripture below is traditionally read on the Day of Atonement or Passover, which is April 18 of this year. While most Christians are celebrating the gods of fertility, some observe Passover. For Christians, with Passover, Jesus is lifted up as the Passover Lamb.

“Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in loving kindness. He will again have mercy upon us; he will subdue our iniquities. And thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. O mayest thou cast all the sins of thy people, the house of Israel, into a place where they shall be no more remembered or ever again come to mind. Thou wilt show faithfulness to Jacob, and loving kindness to Abraham, as thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.” edited to give scripture reference...Micah 7:18-20

Commentary: remnant of his heritage. The prophets hold fast to the belief in a purified Remnant in Israel, a righteous nucleus that is indestructible. And historic Israel that has suffered all things, endured all things, and survived all things for its Faith, may well speak of itself as that Remnant.

I was looking at some old notes and thought I would post my thoughts here.

There were prophets prophesying Israels (northern kingdom) exile to Assyria. Isaiah Amos Micah Hosea were all active at that time.

I cannot believe that at this time that godly people in Israel didn't realize what was going on and where things were going. People with a concern for the Lord. A concern for Spiritual things. Concern for their families and for Israel's future.

Not only that but there had been a big revival under King Hezekiah. 11 Chron. 30.(notice vs 10-11. There is always a nevertheless) Lots of Jews from the northern kingdom left idolatry came to the feast and returned to the Lord.

These Jews just returned from idolatry in the north to the Lord of Israel through the revival under Hezekiah seeing the coming captivity must have got themselves to Israel where their was relative safety. This is not even dealing with it from G's side. Just the side of a righteous man concerned for his family and his future. Seeing the idolatry all around him hearing the prophets speak of the coming exile. If that was me I would get myself and family to where spiritual things were and out of coming danger. Where there was a future for myself and family.

The Jews that were taken to captivity. The decree to return under Cyrus was given when Daniel was a powerful man in the empire. Surely he would have tried to facilitate the return of the 10 tribes. At the very least he would have made sure they all knew about it and had opportunity to come home. A lot of them must have come. Most didn't obviously but enough did so that they were all represented there in Acts.

There were powerful people all through Israels captivity in Babylon. Danial, Nehemiah, Esther/Mordecai, Ezra. I think they were placed there by God to keep his people safe and be in a position to help them get back.

All of this ie: the exile, the promised return, Israel in Babylon, the spiritual state of the nation, the preservation of the scriptures, concern for the future of the nation. All of this would have been of great concern to Dan. & others concerned for Israel. There must have been much intercession ,fasting, prayer going on.

Couple the revival under Hezekiah with the one under his great grandson Josiah (King of Judah in Jerusalem) beginning in 2Chron34 and you can see the same sort of things happening in the land of Israel. Josiah went throughout the land of Israel tearing down the alters and it looks like those from Israel (at least some) participated in the passover that he re-instituted.

Blessings,
William
