

---

Subject: never ending barrel.

Posted by David Coleman on Sat, 24 Aug 2024 17:58:23 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

in 1 kings 17: we see a edifying message hidden. The woman there is seen to trust by faith in Elijah to do as he asks. she receives her miracle. She had to believe or die as she gave all she had--not 10 percent. she gave all possible to live. Notice later the boy dies even though it didn't relate to the cakes that would be eaten to save them.

we know it was a short time that the boy died but as we apply this we can see she forgot the miracle. Elijah ate up the cake leaving nothing for her and her son. She forgot and sees Elijah in a bad light.

She expresses that she is willing to discern a false prophet which is good to discern. She was wrong in her discernment. She charges him as a false man of God. See that in her questioning him.

we see that about Jesus. The leaders would judge Jesus until a leader would say leave him alone, if he is who he says he is, you could be fighting against God if you are wrong.

To edify-- Our faith is quickened by not forget the miracles of God in our past.

---