First post: I began visiting FA with a friend in 1980, and was still there when Dr Freeman went home.

I have since attended church in a number of states around the country, but have always longed for that glorious, hour-long worship. Some places have come close, but not quite matched it.

Wikipedia says there is still a group meeting in Osceola - does anyone know anything about this group or where exactly they meet?

Hi Empowered,

Welcome to the forum, I personally don't know of the group meeting in Osceola?(Indiana?) But there are a couple of members here who live in Indiana who may be able to answer your question.

We'd love to hear of how The Lord is working in your life today, feel free to share.

Hello Empowered,

Couldn't agree more about the worship at Faith Assembly! There were some very Christlike brothers leading the saints in worship of the Lord. The body ministry and testimonines were also a great blessing. I also have not found a place where the worship is so blessed. Did you get a chance to go to the seminars or Zion Lake?

Did you happen to hear who may be preaching at this Osceola meeting? Also, like James said:
Is this in Indiana? or could it be Michigan?

Did you see that there is a music section where you can listen to some of the worship and specials that were shared at FA? It is a tremendous blessing to hear some of the old songs. Sure brings back some nice memories and also something to look forward to. Lord bless you.

Probably the best way to get info like that is to send a note to Joe Berenneman at Faith assembly. Until recently he ran faith ministries and was more or less up to date on who is where.
