One of the Jewish periods not spoken much about. Today is Sept. 24. After half a day a new period begins. It is called the 10 days of awe. In Oct. we will have Yom Kippur at the end of those 10 days. The feasts seem most important as to a prophetic view. Most think that it all points to Jesus return, or rapture.

We wish it were so but the world needs Holy Spirit and the bride to be saved by the gospel of the kingdom.

The 10 days of awe are what we are talking about. We are not talking about The Jewish law here we are talking about repentance. We must not see the grace of God as a small thing and live a life of sin. We who have arrived at perfection, (not yet) can appreciate anything that can show us a time of heart searching. Our goal is to live a one nature life for God, yet a cleansing of faults at the same time. Under grace we still have issues to deal with.

for example-- Things happen that are really a stronger issue than we deal with. we are used to the flesh and it is being changed the Holy Spirit is doing his inner work. Wilful sin is on purpose and it will be chastened. Apostasy is don't chasten me. Is it possible that modern day religious folks are tired of God being in control. Just look at the racial problems. They are a hate group who go to church. it is time for all colors to love and be at peace.

Matt. 24 tells us about the time and the hour when we can know it is close. Analogy-- when we vacuum the floor we would be surprised how much is hidden in the corner still. Stop being angry at the conviction and see how God wants to bless the upright in heart. I find it a joy after God manifests his I forgive you by his Spirit. We do strive for perfection and overcoming our weaknesses. Never say in heart it will be alright fight to keep in fellowship with God and it will all be easier.

It is something that Israel will die by disobeying God's word under law but under grace we can live the same old lives and say it is okay Jesus paid for my sins. What I write makes me tremble--but I am a messenger. ? what are the 2 greatest laws God requires today?
