Even if we share Jesus to one person a day it adds to 365. That is a lot of people. If we say praise the Lord to a stranger and they respond well, and make even a small statement in return-- like I did today. I touched one life for my savior. That would be one seed of righteousness. It can be 365 seeds also if done daily for a year. I find it most of all a way of saying thank you to my Lord who has been so good to me.

place a few tracts in a bathroom or somewhere and see how God will bless. orrrrrrr make a edifying comment on this forum. Not for debate or any negative reason, only to bless.

Get out of me, myself, and I and go joy--Jesus, others, yourself, God will bless a righteous person who follows the Lord who bought them

I am a retired truck driver. I used bathrooms in warehouses and stores everywhere. I used to leave Chick Tracts everywhere I went.

Everyone reads Chick Tracts

Those were a good way show in picture form one's idea about the gospel. One thing that I liked about the Freeman tracts was they would also reveal the Pentecost experience. I also gave chick tracts from time to time. They helped a person understand discerning what was worldly or not of truth.
