Yesterday I put a entry in my blogger about a observance of Ron Wyatt's archeology on Noah's ark and the ark of the covenant he found. He was trying to dig into the ark and could not. He was at a time where he had to leave for home. God sent a quake and it opened up the ground for him to explore. Their is a museum there for all he found.

Noah's ark and a quake.

The next quake happened at the cross. Jesus was on the cross and the quake came right under him and went over to the temple and tore the veil in half. The ark was found under him in a chamber. The blood which landed right on the mercy seat. Through the crack in the ground.

This is the second time for me to receive the sign of the rainbow. After the post in blogger--that early evening the rain which has been a long time had come and given me a rainbow. on the same day.

The other was several years ago when watching the videos. My hand raised by itself and I said that is Noah's ark. The very next day driving to work. Got out of the truck at work place and the most clear colorful bow was over my head.

In Hebrews 13:20 the blood of the everlasting covenant shed for us--same cov. with Noah. Gen. 9:16. Since that time then I have received a revelation about Noah that will make your jaw drop. I think this is why I had the experiences.
