Prophecy being fulfilled:

If this pans out, it is exciting. I have not heard about this until recently.

I have heard of this but have not looked into it. I seen where John Hagee has written a book about it.

Thanks for the article.

You are welcome, Gary.

It is suggested among many people that Ezekiel 39 could be involved.

If so, I believe that is the first war of Tribulation. We will see!

GWB

Never thought of this or maybe I did not pay attention. I'm talking about the war that will take place mentioned in Ezekiel. It almost has to start at the very beginning of Tribulation, because Israel will burn the weapons for seven years.

Interesting!

I'm on the fence on all this blood moon teaching, till I know more what is being said. A friend of ours was telling us about it several months ago but she had no details.

I really believe we are very close to the end though!

GWB,

I liked the picture on this site you shared:

http://www.pray4zion.org/TheComingBloodMoons.html

I have been down there at the wailing wall. If you notice the curtains on the right that is where the women go to pray. They are not allowed in the main section where the men pray.

On the left side is a door that leads to a library where men spend time studying. This opening was only discovered in that last twenty years or so. They dug down deeper and found the door opened to a large room.

Men must have their heads covered before going into this place. They hand out cardboard "kipas" for men to wear when you enter.

This web cam below shows the western wall 24/7. It reminded me of how the two prophets laying dead in the streets and the whole world could look upon them, laying there dead. They will probably set up a webcam or how else would the whole world be able to see them dead in the streets.

It sounds morbid but remember everyone is going to hate the two prophets because they were calling down judgments on the world.

Here's the site of the western wall, (I just checked to see if it was still there), there are several sites now but some you have to join to watch what is going on.

I like this site.

It is interesting!

To have four eclipses fall on four specific feasts days is not coincidental.

Satan has tried to hide the importance of Israel. Israel IS the Bible. Gentiles just got in on her coat tails. Lol The Bible begins and ends with Israel.

I have listened to HEF Restoration of Israel series until they are worn out. Lol HEF taught OT and Hebrew. In going back over many series, he talks about Israel a lot. I just did not appreciate her the way he did. I have had to process the machine gun teachings. Pure brilliance. All glory to God.

I have to learn to operate in many things we were taught. It works.

I am on a mission to figure out the greater works and the lack of power in the church. I am DONE watching occult powers being so prevalent.

I know that I know that there are some on a precipice. They must give up everything. They must be tempted, accused, and persecuted. They must pass all of the tests. They must fall at His feet on a daily bases for mercy and grace because they know it is only possible through Him.

They must press on when people don't understand your walk or life. One's respect from this world was lost ages ago. However, it is replaced with burning desire to ride on the high places and to walk in the Spirit on both sides of the veil.

It is very close and it is time for people to jump and not look back.

Sorry about the ramble! Lol

His delivering powers are mighty to behold!

Just like The Kentucky Derby, there are preened and snorting horses waiting to be ridden next to Jesus.

By faith and His grace, a specific horse is waiting for me!!! Lol

Thanks for the links! With every advancement in technology, I think about this event too!!! No, it is not morbid! It is the living Word!

I am going to Israel before this all goes down. I have a feeling it better be quick!

Awesome that you have been there!

If you're going to go take a look at taking in this conference. It takes place every year in conjunction with the feast of tabernacles.

I've been looking at it for several years and think maybe next year we'll make it. I was there about 20 yrs ago with a friend and want to go back with my wife this time as she has never been.

I want to go to Israel, let alone something like this!

Thanks for this info, Mark!

My mom taught me to love Israel as a little girl. Between her and HEF, I am seeing how much He loves her and how believers should stand with her.

I will always defend Israel and her people. She is the apple of His eye.
