A brother introduced me to this site. It is interesting and has quite a different take on many things in the world. I understand that this is Homeland Security's site. Opinions on this particular article? Comments? Their view is food for thought.

Ok Guys, I am trying here. I am open for tips and suggestions in maneuvering this forum. This article is about Homeland Security and Israel. I put it here because Stratfor is Homeland Security. Israel is the Apple of God's Eye. I am SO glad that the US is working with Israel for their protection.

I don't know if I ever said this here but anyway . . . I read an interesting article recently. The reason successive Administrations of all stripes going back many years support Israel is because there is broad public support for it. It cuts accross all demographic classes income classes education etc. It was interesting. I didn't know that. Whoever wrote the article did a great deal of research going back a lot of years.
