

---

Subject: "That they all may be one"

Posted by sparkles on Sun, 22 Apr 2012 16:20:05 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

John 17:21 "That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."

John 17:23 "I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me."

1Cor 1:10 "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

I was pondering these scriptures in how we can apply them in our everyday lives. We know that everyone is at different stages in their walks with the Lord. Some I know don't like to do yard work on Sundays, as they consider it the Lord's day or the day of rest. Others have no problem with it. Some have no problem going to a movie theatre, where others have the conviction of the Lord to not support that wicked, antichrist entertainment medium.

Some don't want to trust the Lord for healing, where is it clearly promised in God's word, but others will go to deaths door if need be.

Some want to go in debt where others do not want to owe man anything but love.

So, how do we apply the above scriptures in our daily lives?

Personally, I am all for letting others walk out their own salvation with fear and trembling, but there has to be holiness and separation from the world and its ways.

---