In these verses we observe that as Jesus himself standing there says all hail. This salutation is saying for them to rejoice and be glad and not afraid. Notice when they fall it is to grab his feet and to worship and adore him. He is alive. Now they are able to touch him. Mary could not as he had not returned to his father yet. Their experience is a natural one filled with great joy.

If you get the chance try sometime just getting on your knees with hands raised and sing all hail king Jesus

all hail Emmanuel
king of kings, Lord of Lords, bright morning star.
and throughout all eternity,
I'm going to praise you,
and forever more, I will reign with you.

God bless you king Jesus.--- guitar works to.
