For all the regulars here as well as the lurkers readers and other assorted flotsom the handle Hardbones has passed on. Like a dreadnaught fading into the mist of the night. The gulls screaming in the still thin air . . .

In his place a new handle. One that is spiritual, intelligent, street smart, savy, capable, cheerful, did I mention "humble"

In lieu of any outpourings of grief at the passing of Hardbones just send a large cheque in any amount to . . .

Well just to be clear here for various reasons I changed my handle. Its still me. Same station different TV set.

I'll leave this up for a week or so.

That was so poetic I was motivated to change my nom de plume to reflect my own 'spiritual, intelligent, street smart, savvy, capable, cheerful, and yes, humble' birth name! <grin> btw, you do know that you can change your other profile to reflect the new name, right?

Blessings,
William

p.s. James, if Auburn wins today I might change it to 'peace eagle'... that's just the way I roll... tide!

Man! Here I was thinking we had all these new members joining, and it was only the metamorphosis of a couple of guys going through their mid-life crisis...Mark's done gone and bought a motorcycle...William you been drooling at Corvettes?

Moulder and Hardbones, may they rest in peace.

I noticed William that you were able to keep your messages and stuff...(guess that's what you're telling Mark<duh>)

"If Auburn wins..." Saban will probably pull out the rest of his hair...but it ain't gonna happen...too much talent.

I might look at a different car (or truck) but I'm hanging on to my honey!

Concerning the name change you can just go to the 'User CP" at the top of the page and change the alias to reflect what you want to show up on the forum... you still log in using your old name however.

Blessings,
William

No I didn't know that. It would have made things a lot easier.
