

---

Subject: A great day in the sunny south...

Posted by william on Fri, 03 Mar 2006 02:59:30 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Do any of you all fish? It was 70 degrees today so I pulled out the old fly rod and headed to one of my favorite fishing spots, blue-water creek. I put on my leaky waders and spent a couple of wonderful hours fishing for southern trout (small-mouth bass!)

it was a pleasure just to be out in the wild again. I did catch a small one and got a couple of strikes.

Boy, it was great!

William

---