Why are Welsh singers the best singers in the world?

I know it has been a burning question here on O/O as well as in Christendom in general. I am happy to say that I have the answer. It's not my welsh heritage that gave me the answer though. Its just obvious to any who listen. I don't think us welsh (or me their descendant) have a special place in heaven I do however think we have a special place on the earth. At least as far as singers are concerned.

My parents attended this conference back in 1986 and brought the music tape back with them. I was trying to copy it to my computer and found it on the internet. The files are too big to upload to the site. If you want a real blessing in song download at the link and undo the zip and listen. The whole tape is good but especially the songs . . .

I will build my church my way
We will break the power of Satan in this land

Hmmm Hard to argue with that list. I've been preparing for a trip over the pond that will include Wales so it is really been on my mind. I've been wanting all my life to see some of these exotic places there my mum talked about like "mumbles". Still planning for the fall. Wales Israel then Paris on the way home. We're retired now so more time.

Have you heard anything from Bro. Gary? He's been silent lately which isn't unusual but in light of recent events I've been wondering.

Sound like interesting trip, hope you enjoy it.

I haven't heard from Gary lately, right he does sometimes go silent but with the trial he's been walking through I am concerned. I did see Toby today, he stopped by the office for a bit. Wish we all lived closer to each other, but I guess everyone is happy and content where they're living. I'm thinking I like warm weather too much to live up north...and I mean north Alabama, much less Indiana or Canada ðŸ‡¨ðŸ‡¦
