I had a question that didn't fit into any category, so I thought I would create a generic topic that people could use for general thoughts/questions.

I was listening this morning on the way to work one of the sermons in the Romans series. HEF referenced a book entitled "With Signs Following." I did a search on the internet today and wasn't able to find it. Has anyone heard of this book?

Also, he referenced William Branham a number of times as a prophet. From what I have read, he received all his revelations from an "angel" and always referenced this "angel" as the source of his power, not Jesus. Has anyone else ever studied about Branham?

Have a great day!

Duncan
