I am led to give a few testimonies of prosperity to encourage the brethren. I am a giver when ever possible to God's work and have done that abundantly. That was according as I purposed in my heart not by any rules or laws. God is glorified when we give testimony to his faithfulness. This is a secret to our prosperity. I have seen many struggle with the prosperity and healing message which is really a small part of our inheritance. My joy has been more in the other riches in glory than the former. Matt. 6:33 seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness has been a joy to me. my first out of many is when my father in law bought a oldsmobile and had it painted for $800.00. He had it just a few months. My wife and I went on vacation to Fla. after a week we headed home The radiator started overheating and we kept putting water in it. after the long trial(drive) home we pulled up to the house. The vehicle never started again. When we got home we stopped at my wife's parents house. as soon as the door opened papa handed us the keys to the car I mentioned earlier. and said it yours. I knew that God was right on time for providing us with transportation. My father in law bought that car already having 2. He just liked it. He didn't know God was behind all that. My joy is God can do that for you. One day a certain fivefold minister was given the keys to a Lincoln continental. I had the priviledge of driving him in it when going with him to play bass in his meetings. have you ever had a vision from God ? They are awesome beautiful.

Proverbs 3:33 the Lord will bless the habitation of the righteous.

The Lord caused to see that my valuable collectibles were out of place. when you looked at them you actually were not seeing much. each one is in it's own special see through box. I bought each one and it has a lid on them. After dusting them places were found to stack them. every single one of them are now in full view.

It may be hard for you to understand all that is said here, but the idea is that the Lord took them from being hidden so they could be enjoyed. They are valuable. he thinks that way about Christians also. he doesn't want them to hide their light under a bushel but like a light on the hill so all can be seen.

also the Lord blessed the 12 string guitar. the plastic bridge saddle colapsed. at the music store they had a package with a bone saddle in it. The value and sound of the guitar has increased. on the internet they have a guitar tuner www.tunemybass.com it is a variety of bass and guitar tuners that you actually play for free. it is strange that the six string tuner is not correct but the 6th string E is perfect. you can use the tune up pattern for the other five if you know them.

the very night of the 18th which is when the post about the 12 string guitar was posted, there came forth in my opinion a miracle.

the post was about the Lord blessing the bridge with a saddle which is where you connect the strings to the guitar.

in the middle of the night when sleeping, it must have been lightly asleep. it sounded like a gun go off and the ping of a bullet sound when near the upper part of the bed.

after looking on the floor, there was the saddle of my guitar bridge. it was under pressure and broke off at the insert base.

the saddle was a little tall in the bridge and that made the string sounds to be lighter than desired.

I believe God fixed that for me. The thoughts in mind were like someone telling it. loosen the strings a little, slip out the broken piece and install the part that flew off. to my amazement the saddle is perfect and the guitar sounds wonderful.

This very morning the Lord blessed with a new song to go with a new piece of music that was waiting for inspiration by the Spirit. may have told this before that songs come just like prophesying. what is wonderful is when you listen to the songs that God gives you hear them like you are hearing him speak to you.

it is a real warfare to get out there and sing them, yet by faith God will not be denied. when he speaks no one has any choice but to yield to his power. 3 songs within 2-3 weeks is a sure sign of increase-- to God be all glory and praise.

thank you GWB.

it seems to go along with the scripture ---as a person thinks in their heart so are they. that was so not to say masc. or fem. looking for God's miracles and focus on receiving them at God's wonderful discretion, are amazing.

here's another one. after giving a report on Obama's message that the insurance program will be delayed till 2014 and also street preaching to a lady a few days later about insurance is in opposition to the word in 2 Tim. 1:7 we've not been given a spirit of fear. for fear of the future is the main reason for getting a policy--what might happen.

for two days received a call from 2 companies asking if I want to have a job selling insurance. from the positive side of that attack there is a confirmation that the 5-fold minister who forfeited his position, which included he would have a double portion ministry-- there was a opportunity to claim that for myself.

there is twice as many arrows for my twice as big shield of faith involved here. well may God be twice as much glorified . halleluia. love ya. 2 hugs for ya.

Just wanted to bless with a testimony for today. Each time as was praying today, the Spirit of God would pray through the lips. That is tremendous blessing because you are experiencing God pray through you.

Amazing this evening wanted to hear a message for spiritual feeding. After listening to the message on Jacob by Leonard Ravenhill, he was talking alot about what was experiencing today. This isn't the only time but was a day where it was often.

liked what he said near the end. That a preacher who isn't getting on his face for long periods of time and sometimes even weeping for souls, just isn't doing much. It reflects upon his people that his heart may be getting cold.

The anointing of praise was also intensely strong today and even some miracles were taking place. revival has truly come to my house. God be the glory and am thankful for those who pray in any part of the world for me. awesome tongues--thank you Jesus. Sometimes I give thanks for those who don't even know who are interceding for the saints.

Amen Bro. Dave. That was a good encouragement for us to be ever vigilant upon His return.

"Be either hot or cold or I will spew you out of My mouth."

I have to admit, I struggle with trying to not let the cares of this life weigh me down.

I am trusting in His grace and mercy to finish that good work which He has begun in me and to be ready for what He has for all of us in this hour.

would like to encourage you with a principle concerning struggles. I know you are strong, but all the saints face sometimes over whelming trials. They are bigger than --- we--- can handle.

Did you see that. We must always remember that they are bigger than we.

We were ushered into this by God. It would not be so if we were not growing to a higher plain of victory.

The deal is that when the enemy comes in like a flood the Lord promised--- to raise a standard against him.

God put David in the arena with Goliath. It wasn't David but God. Goliath challenged God. David didn't like that but if there was no challenge of God David had no reason to fight. David was the tool in which God would protect his people just like Joseph of Genesis.

God is giving us a tool and teaching us how to use it.
He needs Goliath to help us use the tools. In David's case to protect Israel.

Here is the point. We are being taught by the Holy Spirit to be victorious warriors and more--- than conquerors.

Therefore all struggles are just what we are seeing with our natural eyes. Here is one of many keys we have. The flushing mechanism I call it.

We praise and see ourselves in God's presence. You actually go there. Once you see your there you say --I am safe for I am in the secret place of the most high. remember if you are experiencing God's presence you can be sure absolutely nothing can break that barrier-- nothing.

That is part of God's end time army training. the presence.

A wonderful word of encouragement came my way today. It hit like a branding iron. After you hear this word, begin to exercise it. when you are in different environments think about it.

Any where -- the restroom, the living room, driving down the highway. Look around you, what do you see?? everything you see came out of the earth. is it glass?? is it metal?? The people all came from God, the trees, the food, the dog who is just for your benefit. The sun or moon just for you to have light to see.

The result you want to see in all this is that you are completely and abundantly surrounded by God and his love.

If you are in the Spirit it makes a difference because you will then see it the way I saw it.

We are pressed in with that love even from the other side of the world, it just depends on how far you see that love pressing you in. You have trillions of stars over your head. Who made them ---in one day. So we see while facing a struggle against our face that even in the greater view of thing we are pressed in by the abundant love of God. Then the little struggle looks so small. We also flush out those imaginations with the praise of God. promises of God are yes and amen there are no nos in there.

It was said--- Jesus the shepherd goes before us and mercy and goodness two angels follow us. That is true but lets take it further. The shepherd goes by himself before us to get all the glory and also grace, peace, joy, strength, favor, power, might, provision, refuge, hope, inheritance, lovingkindness, and so many more angels that we can't name them all follow us. God bless.

Thanks Bro. Dave! I appreciate the boost! I go back, at times, and read the posts. This is one I will keep in mind.

Today is the day the Lord has made I will rejoice and be glad in it. This is a supernatural testimony. In a time when many are out of work, God has faithfully manifested a new job. Today is the first pay day.

Not only that but it is the kind of work that is best for the ability. That being because God has set up for my calling. It is rare that at my desk there are less than 10 end time messages being prepared. Several hours in the word a week is needed for this.
