I thought I would share two praise reports of healings --how awesome is our God!

Someone called us last Sunday night and asked that we pray for the healing of her back. She had been in extreme pain for a week and had a large knot on her back. We prayed for her healing and then heard back from her last night. She said the morning after she'd requested prayer, she suddenly realised something was different, she no longer had any pain! She checked out her back and the knot was gone, too. When she called us she had been totally pain-free and knot-free for two days and was thanking the Lord for healing her!

One of our daughters had this praise report today --their neighbor was battling cancer and had suddenly lost her eyesight as well, she sent one of her relatives over to my daughter's and her husband's home to ask them to pray for her healing. The next day, her eyesight was restored! We rejoice in what the Lord did for her and pray for her complete healing from cancer, too.

I am eternally thankful for the fact that the Lord provided healing for us in the atonement! What a mighty God we serve!

Abiding,

Jh 15:16, Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. (KJV)

Thank you for Sharing the Fruit of your labor !

What a Blessing it is to see the Lord working in our lives every day !

God bless you for sharing those praise reports.

We know Gods word is true and He will honor His word.

It's still a great thrill to me when someone is able to testify of Gods faith fullness.

It blessed me greatly that you daughter is following in your footsteps in the faith walk.

I'm curious as to how these people knew to call you. Was it someone from your church or bible study or just someone you witnessed to? In any case you were faithful to give them the word and God honored your testimony and His word.

What a marvelous blessing

Praise the Lord for being our healer!

I have a couple of testimonies of recent healing as well if you don't mind. Recently in our church someone sensed a leading to pray for the healing of backs. A friend of mine has had multiple surgeries on his back and has received extensive physical therapy, pain medication, etc... He is a young believer who is functionally illiterate and listens to the Bible on CD. He went up front for prayer. He said that he now has no pain. He has been able to ride his bike for the first time in years, and rode it 5-6 miles to church just because he could. The doctor is still insisting on surgery, and Shonn is of course insisting that he does not need it, so he is getting more x-rays done to show the healing. If he makes them available, I will try to post the before and after x-rays if I am able to do so.

At the same meeting, a woman with a history of back trouble also came up for prayer. She let out a cry when she was receiving prayer, not because she hurt, but because the pain suddenly left her. She reports that the pain has not returned and has been vibrant and glowing since then.

As the body is for the Lord, the Lord is for the body...

Jisamazed:

Thanks for the Praise reports,

Except you be as a little child, you cannot enter into Gods Kingdom.

Looks like these two have found the keys to the Kingdom...

Praise Jesus !

These stories have really ministered to me personally. It has been so long since I have heard testimonies like this. Thanks so much for sharing and letting us know how He is working and moving today.

Blessings,

GWB
