The Hebrew is very clear. qarab-- to approach , to draw near. that same word is used Lev. 1:3 offer-- qarab. to put that together we have our (approaching)by (offer) the Lamb. This was shown to me as study of word intercession.

To be clear-- when we come to our Father God in Jesus name, (Lamb)because we are allowed to approach him by faith. see Heb. 10:22 (How we draw near.)

Ps. 65:4 Blessed are they that God chooses and causes to approach him to dwell in his courts. now study deeply into verses 2-5. Some of you may see latter rain in v.10. Dt. 32:2.

2 passages in N.T. Heb. 4:16 my--(Approach) boldly to the throne of grace in time of need. and Heb. 10:22 my-- let us Approach) with a true heart in full assurance of faith with the blood and water of the word.

I hope that this invitation will delight you with the privilege to draw near and approach his throne to be absolutely satisfied with God's free grace. James 1:5 He gives wisdom (liberally) haplos--bountifully.
