Hi everyone,

Roger, from NZ posted this song on Revival school today. It so touched my heart that I wanted to share with everyone. It is Robin Mark (Irish) singing `All is well.` Trevor & I enjoyed it so much we listened to other songs that he had, this evening.

Hope you all get blessed.

I don't listen to a lot of contemporary Christian Artist (my wife does) but I do like Robin Mark. "This City, These Streets" and "East Of The River" are my favorite albums of his.

Here's one of my favorite Robin Mark songs. The phrase

"Grace flows like a might river, and one day I just dipped my finger in, and love caught and dragged me to a deeper place." really blesses me. I like ballads and folk style music which this song would fall under.

Hi dscott,

It was so good to wake up this morning & put on that song by Robin Mark. Thank you for that link. I have been thinking on discipling for another thread & when I watched that video it so struck me that unless we go with Holy Spirit intent in our lives we will miss opportunities to minister/connect with others. Hopefully as the songwriter says, that next time, if he runs into that old school friend, that he will talk to him about God's grace, that he has found.

Blessings, Marilyn.

That is a pretty song.

I don't recall ever hearing the verses to that song. We always sang just the chorus in the meetings I attended.
