My younger brother has passed away. I was closer to him than the 2 older ones. He was confused and believed in the aliens are god theory. I shared with him several years by word and my life. He was moved by that but also his other theory.

God has given me continual comfort peace and joy. Actually over whelming. The work for good is that through this we now have 5 kinfolk which we have not been in contact for years. They all talk about Jesus. They live far off. 4 of them are my brothers 3 kids and one grand daughter. They are not kids anymore and what a transformed life they reveal. They came and took responsibility in a mature way and lifted our burden. Before they left was able to sing to them a couple worship songs. Out the door the son said you sing like a angel.

They gave me some things that prospered me as they thought they would comfort me. Oh God Acts 16 save now Lord all my family and kin. The greatest thing was that I could share Jesus with all of them.

I have shared before that God has manifested my faith with many free instruments. I also have a guitar my brother gave me for free which is a none electric 6 string. I have 2 Basses, (free) 3 guitars (free) 3 guitars special buy. and many instruments. All used to praise and worship.
