The Lord was showing me different things relating to gardening, husbandry, planting, seeds etc. Then he led me to the F.F.Bosworth healing book. The book was sitting opened to chapter 12 where I had left off long time ago. God is awesome, it was like a miracle.

The biggest thing that stuck in my heart was, God has to prepare a heart to receive the seed--word of God. Reading is like in the parable of the sower. the seed -- word must fall on cultivated ground. The word must be mixed with faith or it will be rejected by one's choice and not profit. a certain preacher said once-- you can lead the animal to the trough but you cannot make them drink. They may look at it, (like reading) but they will just forget it and look for something else.

I used to write sermons outlines when in a church meeting. so I could go back and review it and apply it to my life. may add, faithful ministers sit a whole week preparing a good teaching for the people. If it is rejected it still remains a good seed for those who are getting ready for what God has for them.

with a good personal relationship with God (even hearing his voice ) you will find revival every day.
