in v.5 we see something that must either be literal or spiritual. The scriptures around that verse make it a literal blood moon. v.6 shows stars falling. It is interesting to see that this is a prophetic verse in v.6. That is a future event. The stars are here telling the future. it is a passage that must be discerned as stars telling of the future but not astrology. The figs are a picture to describe for this is not figs falling. May the Holy Spirit show the truth here.

the bible dose not teach Christian's to look into the Zodiac. as a way that God communicates....you used that word and told me on the phone God made the zodiac as to justify using that word..i remember when i was young Dr Freeman warned about this.( angels of light ) .i notice you say not " astrology" and here you're bringing up looking into the stars for the future. I was not going to say anything about this but I feel compelled to bring it up. this is for protection against the possibility of what seems to be occult. when you used the word zodiac it's tied to the occult. the Bible warns about soothsayers or stargazers.. and i disassociated

What verses are you discussing? This post has over 11 thousand views and nobody has mentioned that the references given say nothing about the things you discuss?

Revelation 6:5 KJV

And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

Revelation 6:6 KJV

And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [see] thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

I spoke with David Coleman at least a dozen times over a series of weeks on the phone. everything seemed okay until out of nowhere he came up with this teaching. that's a future would be told through the Stars. he told me on the phone it's not astrology. but God created the constellations or zodiac and this is how he's communicating the future to us. and you need to have the Holy Spirit to understand this or guide you into the understanding. I told him that the zodiac or that type of knowledge is so called and I have a check in my spirit. and I said goodbye and I never talked to him again. until I addressed what he is written here. he says it's not astrology. but astrology is the revealing of supposed truth through Stars or constellations. and I will simply. quote him here

"The stars are here telling the future. it is a passage that must be discerned as stars telling of the future but not astrology"

I'm glad he posted this it doesn't fit the scripture what you pointed out. he needs to come here and explain his position. to me this is a red flag. William Branham used to say that God spoke to his people through Egyptian hieroglyphics. the zodiac constellation and the Bible. Dr Freeman warned us of this .... I really liked speaking with David Coleman. but I can't receive this.

I've always found it frustrating when folks use the old "the HS must reveal this" as a basis for the things they say... it's a good way to silence the argument for those apparently too dense to understand (me) and leaves the door wide open for fantastical statements to go unchallenged. Anyway, that's just me.

Blessings,
William

I believe in the sign of Sept. 23, 2017 it includes sun, moon, planets, constellations, stars. it is a sign of the rapture of the man child. can be seen on you tube. rapture is future but not astrology.

Dr. Freeman is not with us to see such a event.

Dr Freeman warned about those looking at stars, constellations ,zodiac to see "future events"..(angels of light ) looking at constellations and saying it is not "astrology to predict the future... seems is the very definition of what astrology is....

instead of the text of scripture. your advice is to appeal to the Holy Spirit to reveal this truth. and then now go watch YouTube videos.
