I thought I would share two praise reports of healings --how awesome is our God!

Someone called us last Sunday night and asked that we pray for the healing of her back. She had been in extreme pain for a week and had a large knot on her back. We prayed for her healing and then heard back from her last night. She said the morning after she'd requested prayer, she suddenly realised something was different, she no longer had any pain! She checked out her back and the knot was gone, too. When she called us she had been totally pain-free and knot-free for two days and was thanking the Lord for healing her!

One of our daughters had this praise report today --their neighbor was battling cancer and had suddenly lost her eyesight as well, she sent one of her relatives over to my daughter's and her husband's home to ask them to pray for her healing. The next day, her eyesight was restored! We rejoice in what the Lord did for her and pray for her complete healing from cancer, too.

I am eternally thankful for the fact that the Lord provided healing for us in the atonement! What a mighty God we serve!
