
Subject: Isa. 55 if I can just find the prophetical.
Posted by David Coleman on Mon, 08 Jan 2024 16:34:19 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Isa. 55:1 If the Prophet is speaking of thirsting for waters in a prophetical manner then he includes the future. If not it is for O.T. folks.

Well after finding the prophetical then we have much future here included. 1. In v. 3 we have two. He says (everyone) that comes in v.1 and v.3 He will make a everlasting covenant. Heb. 13:20 that covenant is everlasting and is the blood paid for our redemption. 2. In John ch. 4 He offers the woman free rivers of water for thirst to be for everlasting life. Jn. 7:37-39 shows us the water is the Holy Spirit. and he gives the living waters.

v.3 also there is the sure mercies of David. see Matt. 9:27 and Lk. 18:38-39. This is prophetical as to what Isaiah is saying. Jesus son of David and his mercies was future of Isa. 55:3.

Also 55:5 we have here the Holy one. He is for all nations. Mk. 1:24 and Acts 2:27 and Acts 3:14. also other places. In 55:13 we have for a name as a everlasting sign. Name refers to someone famous here in the Hebrew. It is the Lord for a name.

So verse 1 is the key. E-v-e-r-y-o-n-e- who thirsts. It doesn't stop at Jesus coming only, but it a everlasting covenant. Also everlasting water. Why? see Isa. 12v:3 wells of salvation. Including Jn. 7:37-39 Holy Spirit the water. and then it never ceases. see Rev. ch. 22:1-2 and Rev. 7:17. 21:6. it never stops flowing from the Holy Spirit from John to revelations and on to eternity.

In Acts 2:4 the utterance from the mouth comes from the belly, (inner man) which is the rivers of water. That is tongues. That then to be understood, (God praying through you) would need interpretation in your language. If a person seeks signs they could find false signs. When you pray in tongues you will know that this sign is not false. Why? God will show you in your language. You probably will need good teaching if you are a new beginner. If you go to a false teacher they can trick you because they are just making a noise and not real tongues.

Tongues is a secret kind of language so the devil doesn't know what God is saying through you. When the power of God manifests at the other time of what you prayed, Things just happen and are unhindered. That my friend is Halleluiah time. It is all about faith and believing God who never will fail you.