In the past few weeks the Lord has been blessing me in memorizing scriptures. There are many past things that have remembered and going over them also. those past things are so amazing how the mind stores them. The key is how to remember things. If you cannot show a passage to what you know as truth, a world full of opinions and actually in a state of opposition will not listen.

explaining a subject is more effectual from the heart and by experience. Wisdom of God helps reach the heart of the hearer. If one is under a anointing they will have many operations of the Spirit to convince the hearers. One example is when a person was with me and I gave a word of knowledge. He was told we were about to find ourselves in trouble and what it was. It happened. next time I saw him and he said he was excited that I knew before what would happen. It was for both our benefits what God revealed.

The great blessing of saying scriptures for memory is we find ourselves being renewed in our minds from the carnal worldly thoughts. Thinking about God keeps us walking in one nature of Christ. I thank God for giving me several ways to remember scriptures it is a gift from the Spirit of God.
