Hebrews 12:1-3

Hebrews chapter twelve was my NT daily reading this morning, and the warning and encouragement to not faint or grow weary in our minds along with laying aside every thing that would hinder our running to completion of the race set before us is a good reminder. Whether or not there is a delay or not shouldn't be reason for a Christian to presume upon God's mercy, we should be living expectantly as He tells us to do, redeeming the time given us.
