OK, this is the bad-memories-that-need-healing section.

Sorry for the distasteful post title but hey, it got your attention!

I'm talking about the night when Bill Garner was removed as pastor of Faith Assembly. Actually he was removed already and the rest of the assembly was going to get an opportunity to hear "why" or some such nonsense. I was there and we were told it was because of "sin" but no details concerning what "sin" he had committed were forthcoming. Oh we heard about how he hadn't preached on faith for six months and that his messages were all on "love" but no details of the "sin"--I WANT THE DIRT AND I WANT IT NOW!

Yikes, I get upset whenever I think of that night--I've got to burn those notes!

OVERCOME NOW, OVERcome now, overcome now.
