Hello Everyone,

Just a heads up to let you know that we are going to be moving to a new host/server this week. I don't know the exact timing but if you notice anything out of the ordinary, don't worry, it should be fully functional as soon as I can move over all of the files.

I'll be moving about 30 domains so I'm not able to give an exact time or date but sometime between today (09/12/2019) and next week about this time (09/19/2019).

Thanks for your patience!

Blessings,
William

Well, it took me a little longer than I thought but it's done!

Let me know if you notice any odd behavior... so far so good!

Blessings,
William

Looks good, bells and whistles working great...Like getting a new car, a green new car.. :)

Thanks for the labor of love

Let me know if you like the "Quick Reply" option or not. I thought it might help with "spur of the moment" thoughts that might otherwise be lost if one has to click an extra button!

Blessings,
William
