There was a book by a preacher named Bob Buess. He was a man who pressed in for positive confession. The balance is if your not a upright individual, your words may likely fall to the ground. Preaching positive sermons for people who do not obey God and his word, just make them rich. We as human beings really thrive on happy, all is well, looking for blessings, wealth etc. the message that makes one feel good in their depression Without deliverance, is like a screen door in a submarine.

God is watching those who are seeking his will and striving to do all of his word so he can shower them with his favor and blessing. Just like a husband and wife. He can't wait to get home and bring flowers , candy, gifts etc. The book confessing God's favor, stirs faith but faith must receive it. We all must watch what we say as death and life are in the power of the tongue. Favor is life. endurance is like a bunny with a battery--it keeps going and going and going. Thought for today-- say I am going to get all God has for me. I have his favor-- and mercy by faith.
