
Subject: A great day in the sunny south...
Posted by william on Fri, 03 Mar 2006 02:59:30 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Do any of you all fish? It was 70 degrees today so I pulled out the old fly rod and headed to one of my favorite fishing spots, blue-water creek. I put on my leaky waders and spent a couple of wonderful hours fishing for southern trout (small-mouth bass!)

it was a pleasure just to be out in the wild again. I did catch a small one and got a couple of strikes.

Boy, it was great!

William

Subject: Re: A great day in the sunny south...
Posted by mark1124 on Fri, 03 Mar 2006 04:27:31 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

William,

I ought to rebuke you for being in 70 degree weather while here is New England it is around 30!

Well, at least you caught something. I guess I can cheer up. Spring is around the corner and the warmer weather will be upon us.

God bless

Mark

Subject: Re: A great day in the sunny south...
Posted by william on Fri, 03 Mar 2006 16:32:16 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hey, I paid my dues in N Indiana, can I help it if you and Mark aren't as enlightened? Why do you think all of the old people move south? They wake up one day smarter and wiser and so they "do the right thing" and move south!

Subject: Re: A great day in the sunny south...
Posted by william on Fri, 03 Mar 2006 23:01:42 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Quote:...now that Brother Freeman is no longer watching.....how much of ones' salary should one devote unto the purchase of lottery tickets?

You know we live in the Bible Belt--Alabama has yet to succumb to love of the filthy lucre!

But since you need advice I'd say one ticket is enough... after all, how much help does God need? <grin> (I'm sure he wouldn't mind if you bought an extra one for me though... just be sure to mark it clearly as mine as soon as you purchase it!)

Wild Will
