I know quite a few people in the Messianic Judaism movement. I believe that people need to be very, very careful concerning legalism towards the Sabbath and when celebrating the Feasts.

We are free in Jesus.

â€œThe law is a means of education pointing to Christ. It is not a means of salvation, which is only by faith.â€• (Dr. Freeman, Seventh Day Adventist tape)

There is deception that is being propagated within the Messianic Judaism movement. I am not saying that the entire movement is â€œoffâ€• or wrong. I have, personally, learned much from studying the Feasts. However, in observing some within the movement, there are seven areas of deception that are prevalent.

1. Legalism concerning the Sabbath.
2. The problem of Law and Grace
3. Herbert W. Armstrong and the World Wide Church of God
4. Anglo-Israelism (The 10 Lost Tribes of Israel Error)
5. Seventh Day Adventism
6. Denies the Personality of the Holy Spirit
7. The Names of God Errors

Lew White is a false teacher who is propagating this deception in my area (Kentuckiana). His books are published by Ambassador College which is Herbert W. Armstrong's publishing company. He also owns and operates Electric LadyLand. It is a headshop on Bardstown Road in Louisville. Hmmm....sure wish someone would take this one on from the Ethics series.

I have also called Jewish Voice Ministries, who I support. They knew of him and agreed with me.

It took some time, but I believe I have pin pointed much of his deception in the following outlines within this topic.

I do not feel that my outlines replace listening to the teachings for yourself. I, definately, need help in learning how to outline the teachings. With this being said, any and all help will be cheerfully received!

Dr. Freeman believed that his books and teachings would be used in the end-times. I believe this is happening as we see doctrines of demons flying around everywhere. I also believe that OO is being used as well.

Thanks for taking the time to post your notes GWB. Concerning the first two points --the Sabbath, and the Law; this is the same things that the early Church had to deal with. You can imagine how difficult it would be for a practicing Jew to accept the tenets of Christianity. Those Judiazers that Paul had to confront had a whole arsenal of OT doctrine they could use in their attempts to frighten the new converts.

Just take the circumcision issue... here you have generation after generation that practiced the ritual in order to assure that they were not cut off from the covenant, and then you've got this new teaching that says that salvation is by grace, and that circumcision is no longer necessary!

Would you want to be the first generation of Jews to not circumcise your firstborn? It had to be a tough choice to make.

To make an imperfect analogy, it would be like someone from our circles finding out that Jesus was born on December 25th, had a decorated tree with a star on top in the manger, and that He expected us to honor Him on that day (I said it was an imperfect analogy!!)... could we just give up all that we had been taught and with a cheerful heart begin to celebrate? It would be tough.

That really could not even come close to what those early Jews had to endure because they sometimes lost everything with the decision to follow

Jesus.

Heb 10:32-33 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

This was made all the harder for them because they, and they alone, HAD THE TRUE RELIGION!

It was much easier for the gentiles. Their religions had very little that would provide them with a strong and convincing faith. All of their mythological stories were about as believable as the legend of Paul Bunyan would be to us. It was nothing to compare with the actual historical events and revelation that was found in the Jewish religion.

Blessings,
William

Hey moulder,

Thanks for the info about the updates notice..will do.

Also, the comments about the early believers were very good. In thinking about it again, it would have been very radical in dealing with the "freedom and grace" issues after hundreds of years of being under the law.

Consider this post a notice to updating my first original post, and to the Seventh Day Adventist outline. I got my notes confused between SDA and HWArmstrong. They have very similar points.

Thanks for your patience! Again, pray for my PC skills!

TAPE #381

I. SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS CULT

A.INTRODUCTION

1. Founded by William Miller

a. Daniel Chapter 9 error
b. Legalism towards the Sabbath
c. The false teaching of Ellen G. White and Seventh Day Adventism (SDA)
d. HEF â€œNo one knoweth the day or how but the Father.â€• Mt. 24:36
e. Salvation by works (HEF Read Galations)

2. Marks of a cult

a. False Prophecy
b. False Teaching

1) The false teaching of Ellen D. White and Seventh Day Adventism (SDA).

B. SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS ERRORS

1. The Atonement of Christ is unfinished.

a. Dr. Freeman (HEF) You cannot sacrifice by works.
b. False prophecy of Christâ€™s return in 1844 by Wm. Miller (SDA founder).
c. Because Christ did not return in 1844, SDA said that sin is on a Book of Records in heaven.
d. SDA believe that, at that time, our sins were transferred to heaven and Jesus is investigating our sin.
e. HEF Heb 9, 10:11-14 â€œJesus is the complete sacrifice.â€• â€œIt is finished.â€• â€œIt was not finished in 1844!â€•

2. The Atonement is complete because Satan is the final sin bearer.

a. HEF Atonement means covering of sin; one goat was used.
b. The bearing away of sin; another goat was used (scape goat)
c. SDA believe the scape goat is Satan
d. HEF Both goats were pure and spotless and both typified Christ bearing away sin.

3. Legalistic and Sabatarian

a. To be under moral and ceremonial law is bondage, putting you under the curse. Galations 2:3
b. We are under grace Ro 6:14
c. Concerning meats (pork), â€œIt is what comes out of a man that defiles him.â€• Mark 7:14-19.
d. All is to be received and cleansed by prayer. I Tim 4
e. Sabbath is a covenant to Israel; not to the Church.
f. If you lit a fire, cooked, traveled too far, etc., it was death! Jer 17:20, Ex 35:3, Ex 31:12-17.
g. The law is a means of education (pointing to Christ) and not salvation.

h. 4th century Catholic Church decreed Sunday for their people. Sunday was seen as the Lordâ€™s Day in NT.
i. â€œ..if one esteems (Wed. to Sun.) one day to anotherâ€• We worship and honor God everyday!
j. Sabbath is covenant to Jews about Jesus; Sunday is celebration of resurrection for Christians.
k. NT Jews celebrated both! Paul did so he could be â€œall things to all men to win some.â€• Acts
l. Lordâ€™s Day is Sunday: Acts 20:7, 1 Cor. 16:2, Rev. 1:10.
m. Everything was abolished at the cross; the Sabbaths, etc.; â€œ..blotting out of ordinances.â€• Col. 2:13-17
n. The keeping of righteousness, contained in the law, was never annulled. They are eternal principles.
o. Like Abraham, we are saved by faith and not by keeping the law. Galations
p. The law is so righteous that no man can keep it and it magnifies sin. It is a school master to bring people to grace. Fruit follows salvation; not works of righteousness.

4. Soul Sleep

a. SDA take Acts 7, 1Thess. 4 literally when it states â€œfell asleep.â€•
b. Math. 17. The soul is alive and conscious.
c. Examples: Moses and Elijah, Lazarus and the rich man, who was a sinner and not asleep! (Luke 16:19-31), the thief on the cross (Luke 23:40-43), â€œâ€¦we are present with the Lordâ€• (Phil 1:21-23), â€œâ€¦absent with the body is with the Lordâ€• (II Cor. 5:8), Ps 73:24, Rev. 6:9-11.

5. SDA denies hell and eternal punishment.

a. SDA use Mal. 4:3 â€œâ€¦for they shall be ashes under your feetâ€• literally and not figuratively.

b. HEF The destruction is eternal. Job 21:30, Ps 52:1-5, John 3:36, Is. 66:24, Math. 25:46, Luke 16:19-31, John 3:36, Rev. 14:9-11 â€œâ€¦smoke of their torment rises up forever.â€• Rev. 20:10, Mark 9:43 â€œâ€¦.hell fire that never shall be quenched.â€•

6. Anglo-Israelism

This is a separate tape with a separate outline.

7. SDA is based on false prophecy and false doctrine.

These notes are a work in progress concerning the seven areas of deception. These are my personal notes taken from the teaching tapes of Dr. Freeman. People are more than welcome to challenge, or help with, my interpretation of the teachings. These outlines do not replace listening to the teachings yourself. There are just too many gems in the teachings to include on an outline. I would be thrilled to have people listening to these teachings again and discuss them. In the meantime, I will continue to outline the teaching as I have time.

GWB wrote on Tue, 23 February 2010 19:02I know quite a few people in the Messianic Judaism movement. I believe that people need to be very, very careful concerning legalism towards the Sabbath and when celebrating the Feasts.

We are free in Jesus.

â€œThe law is a means of education pointing to Christ. It is not a means of salvation, which is only by faith.â€• (Dr. Freeman, Seventh Day Adventist tape)

There is deception that is being propagated within the Messianic Judaism movement. I am not saying that the entire movement is â€œoffâ€• or wrong. I have, personally, learned much from studying the Feasts. However, in observing some within the movement, there are seven areas of deception that are prevalent.

1. Legalism concerning the Sabbath.
2. The problem of Law and Grace
3. Herbert W. Armstrong and the World Wide Church of God

4. Anglo-Israelism (The 10 Lost Tribes of Israel Error)
5. Seventh Day Adventism
6. Denies the Personality of the Holy Spirit
7. The Names of God Errors

I totally missed this thread which started the end of February(I must have had my mind on taxes). But these same issues that GWB has brought up, The Holy Spirit has been showing me. I mentioned them in a couple of posts how I see people being drawn in to the legalism of obeying the Law and starting to follow after Jewish traditions, thinking that they are pleasing God.

There's a growing segment of Christians who have really gotten into the Jewish traditions as to celebrating the Feasts, keeping the Sabbath, Levitical Laws, and have willingly placed themselves under bondage to obey that which Jesus set us free from. I've seen on TV false preacher/prophets who are concentrating their ministry on this, drawing people back into bondage with the promise that this is what pleases God. It destroys the Grace given us by Jesus' sacrifice at Calvary.

Thanks, Gillyann.
