What Wilkerson said was true, but maybe this is why so many have a hard time finding a Bible based church.

Hollywood is trying to get pastors to include superman in their sermons:

Heres a statement of one of the pastors who attended the screening of superman:

Quote:At first, Scott said, he didnâ€™t buy the religious pitch. Then he decided to attend a free midweek screening in Baltimore.

â€œWhen I sat and listened to the movie I actually saw it was the story of Christ, and the love of God was weaved into the story," said the pastor.

"It was something I was very excited about that with the consultation of our senior pastor, we could use in our congregation.â€•

So the sermon this week is the good news about "superman".
